

March 25, 1926.

President, J.E. LeRossignol,
American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Dr. LeRossignol:-

The representative of McGill University at your Dartmouth Conference will be Lt. Col. R.R. Thompson, M.C., Associate Professor of Accountancy at this University. Colonel Thompson is an expert accountant, thoroughly acquainted with Canadian conditions and possessed of a broad knowledge of economic conditions. He earned much distinction during the war and has written the history of the 52nd Division, one of the best divisional histories produced in Britain.

Yours faithfully,

Wilfrid Bovey.