

Sir Arthur Currie.

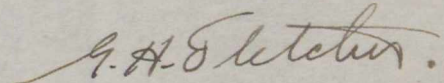

It was then moved and carried by the Students' Executive Council that Mr. Barclay and Mr. Levitzky be refused the privileges of the McGill Union, in that they used the Union to distribute for sale copies of the "Black Sheep" on Thursday, March 2nd, 1933.

The Council left the interpretation of this refusal of the privileges of the McGill Union and its enforcement to the discretion of the Union House Committee.

I hope that the action of the Students' Executive Council will meet with the approval of the Corporation.

I am,

Yours very truly,

Secretary-Treasurer

GHF/AVC.
