

was pressing them to this Purpose, one of the Sachims, who had promised to head a Party from the Canajohary Castle, said, You seem to think that we are Brutes, that we have no Sense of the Loss of our dearest Relations, and some of them the bravest Men we had in our Nation: You must allow us Time to bewail our Misfortune.

About ten Days before his Excellency left Albany, a Party of upwards of seventy Men, consisting of some of each Nation, went against Canada: Some Christians were of the Party to assist and direct, and to be Witnesses of the Behaviour of the Indians. They were to avoid all the Lakes, and the usual Roads and Passes to Canada, and were to go thro' the Woods over Mountains that are seldom pass'd, to prevent the Enemies discovering them: But after these had been out, Capt. Butler's Son, to whom the chief Direction of this Party was committed, was taken ill of the Small-pox, and first of the Indians were obliged to return to carry him Home. Another small Party was sent out to take Prisoners, and gain Intelligence at Crown-Point. At the writing of this, it is not known what Success they have had.

When the Six Nations had come as far as the lower Mohawk Castle, in their Return Home, they were met by about six Men of their own Nations, who deliver'd a Message from Canada, which had been brought by the Indian who was taken by the French at Crown-Point, and carried to Canada. The Message was interpreted in the following Words
 “ The Governor of Canada had called the Cahmaga Indians to him, and then complain'd to them “ that some of the Six Nations, his Children, had “ killed some of his People: You all know, he “ said, that I am not hasty or passionate, but will “ rather bear a great deal than shew Resentment, “ wherefore I am resolv'd to pass this over; but “ in
