

Nicholas, Denys — At Nepisiquit, 18, v. i.

Noble, Parson — 108, v. i.

Normal School, 114, v. ii.

Nova Scotia rallies to the defense of New Brunswick, 52, v. ii; first legislature, 74, v. i; loyal persons in, 96, v. i; disloyal movements in, 101, v. i; martial law proclaimed, 101, v. i.

Nova Scotia Militia refused to be embodied in Truro, Onslow and Cumberland, 102, v. i.

New England settlers, 97, v. i; their disloyalty, 97, v. i.

New France, Company of—8, v. i

Newfoundland Banks, 2, v. i.

New Brunswick—Population in 1767, 71, v. i.; agitation for separation from Nova Scotia, 140, v. i.; limits of the new Province, 141, v. i; Colonel Carleton appointed governor, 141, v. i; its population in 1784, 142, v. i; its system of Government, 145, v. 1.; regulation of its commerce, 148, v. i.; its boundary, 149, v. i.; House of Assembly elected governor, Carleton's views, 152, v. i.; election, of Sheriff Oliver of St.

John throws out 82 votes of the popular party and elects their opponents, 155, v. i.; its revenue, 158, v. i.; weights and measures, 186, v. i.; Militia Bills, 190, v. i.; its trade in 1799, 210, v. i; its population declining, 219, v. i.; growth of its timber trade, 224, v. i; timber trade, 226, v. i; grant for education, 229, v. i.; revenue increasing, 231, v. i.; attempt of Nova Scotia to steal its territory, 236 v. i.; Regiment, 237-238, v. i.; 104th Regiment 270, v. i.; its increasing revenue, 273, v. i.; population 290, v. i.; Provincial agent, 295, v. i.; Regiment, 299, v. i.; growth of its commerce, 312, v. i.; preparation for defence, 316, v. i.; Regiment marches for Canada, 323, v. i.; increase in its revenue after the Peace, 334, v. i.; failure of the crop, 342, v. ii.; relief proceedings, 343, v. i.; trade, its rapid growth, 379, v. i.; the first census, 396, v. i.; its flourishing revenue, 57, v. ii.; its disordered finances, 77-78-79, v. ii.; Census of 1851, 155, v. ii.

New Brunswick, education in, 228, v. ii; University, 370, v. ii.

O

Odells, the—Hold the office of Provincial Secretary for 60 years, 161, v. i.; the, 90, v. ii.

Orders in Council, Government by, 157, v. i.

Orange Incorporation Act, 321, v. ii.

Oswald, his unfortunate treaty of Peace, 128, v. i.