Summary.

By a Staff Reporter.
LONDON, June 30.—The London Turf Association had grand weather for the opening day of the circuit meeting. The attendance was not as large as the members would be pleased to see, but they expect a record attendance tomorrow, the holiday. The officials for the meeting are:

President Judge and starter, J. D. Lowrie, Esq.; associate judge, Dr. Routledge and Wm. Robinson, Esq.; timekeepers, R. H. Reid, R. Wilcox and J. Treloar.

Donald Fraser is the general secretary, and is always just where he is wanted and tries to make things pleasant for the horsemen, as well as his guests. There were three races on the program for today. The 2.10 mile race, the 2.20 mile race and the 2.14 mile race.

The first race was for the 2.10 mile with nine entries and eight horses.
