Amateur Baseball

Only one game separates the two first teams in the Playgrounds Senior League. Order leads Elizabeth by one game, but as these teams meet on Saturday the championship yet hangs in the balance. The seven-innings game will bring together Moss Park and St. Andrews, who are fighting for third place. A collection will be taken to raise money for the Sportsmen's Patriotic Fund. The standing:

The final games in the Y.M.C.A. League The final games in the Y.M.C.A. League will be played on Saturday, when East Toronto meet St. Clements at 2 o'clock and Central and Broadview clash at 4. These games are of more than usual interest on account of the closeness of the race, Broadview and East Toronto still being only half a game apart.

A meeting of the various organizations connected with the Toronto Amateur Baseball Association was held at 22 College street, on Wednesday night, at which 20 leagues were represented. Many matters of vital importance to the amateur ball players were settled. The rules to govern the final competitions were discussed and approved, and it was decided to ask the Ontario A.A.U. to approve of arrangements for an inter-city final game between the amateur champions of Toronto and Hamilton. The leagues were unanimous in declaring that
