

with the said fee. Until the payment of the fees no person shall enter into the privileges of membership.

Any person elected after the 31st of March in any year shall be called upon to pay only a pro rata fee until December 31st next ensuing, but if such election be after the 30th September, he shall pay the subscription for the next year at the same time as the pro rata amount for the current year. All subscriptions shall be due for renewal on the first day of January (in advance).

Ordinary members who reside more than ten miles from the General Post Office in the City of Toronto shall be called upon to pay only $3.00 as their annual fee.

Any member whose annual subscription shall be six months in arrear shall be reported to the Council on the first Monday in July, and unless the Council shall otherwise decide, shall be suspended from membership, and shall be notified of such suspension; but such member may be re-instated within the year upon payment of arrears.

At least fourteen days previous to the annual election in each year, the Secretary and Treasurer shall prepare and sign a roll of the names and addresses of members who have paid their subscriptions, and are in good standing. Such roll, which shall be subject to correction by the Council only, shall be hung up in the Reading Room, and only those whose names appear on it shall be entitled to vote or hold office.

The Council shall have power to remit the annual subscription or arrears thereof in case of a member who, from ill-health, advanced age, or other sufficient cause, is unable to pay the same, or to accept from him in lieu thereof any manuscripts, books, drawings, models or specimens which are in their opinion valuable to the Institute. But each case must be considered and reported on by a committee of Council appointed for such purpose.

10. If any complaint is brought against a member, the charge shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and shall be considered by the Council, and opportunity given for a reply. If the Council deem it desirable, they may then call a special general meeting for the consideration of the matter at issue, of which not less than a week's notice shall be given, and if two-thirds of the members present at that meeting are of opinion that such member should be expelled, the officer presiding thereat shall pronounce his expulsion, and the fee paid by the member for the current year shall be refunded to him.

11. For the study of special branches of Literature, Science and Art, members may group themselves into such Sections as the Council may from time to time approve, subject to the ratification of the Institute at any of its ordinary meetings. Each Section shall form its own regulations and by-laws, but subject to the sanction of the Council, to whom they shall be transmitted for that purpose. Associate members who join any Section may vote and hold any office therein, except that of Chairman, and take part in all its proceedings.
