WHEAT PRICE FIXING TO BENEFIT FARMERS

American Senate Provides for Pay ments at Local Elevators.

Washington, March 21.-The wheat price amendment to make the mini-mum $2.50 a bushel was adopted, 49 five days' discussion, in which its advocates urged the necesstimulating production and criticized government price fixing. The carrying appropriations of $28,-000,000, was passed with aroll call, the principal fight being centered on the wheat provision. Besides increasing the financial guarantee, the Gore amendment also provides that the guaranteed prices for the 1918 crop shall be based upon lent, instead of the No. 1 variety as under existing law and shall be payable at local elevators or railway mar kets instead of at the principal primary markets, as is done now. Sensation of the Day.

The sensation of the day, however, was furnished by Col. J. A. Currie, Unionist member for North Simcoe. The prime minister had moved that Mr. George S. Boivin be elected deputy speaker and Sir Wilfrid had concurred in this suggestion. That, or-dinarily, would have ended the matter, but Col. Currie arose to deliver an impassioned protest. He said that Mr Boivin was an anti-conscriptionist who had done nothing to help the government win the war and that his election was a slap in the face for the people who had returned the govern-ment. He did not, however, move open support altho several of the Ontario Conservative members were undoubtedly in sympathy with his pro-

Finally it came the government's turn to direct proceedings and Mrs. Kidd, 64 Melbourne avenue, to house went into committee of the whole with Mr. Boivin in the chair, on Sir George Foster's bill to provide for the inspection of hay.

It was not a thrilling subject, but Dr. W. J. Edwards of Frentenac, managed to inject a thrill. He said the legislation was entirely unnecessary except in the maritime provinces, and these provinces were represented in the government by "an expert on hay." This recalled the celebrated encounter a few years ago between Hon. Martin Burrell and Hon. F. Carvell in which Mr. Carvell was savagely de-nounced for his dealings with the government in connection with the pur-chase of hay for the South African The woman suffrage bill will be up for the second reading tomorrow.
