The Slow-Death Process.

The implied duty assigned to the Board of Works, when Council referred to the committee the High Park entrance matter, was, as it were, to bayonet a failen foe. The committee, however, took the usual procedure, and nave decreed a slow, torturesome death. Animation is to be sustained by a scheme propounded by Ald, Lamb, and consented to by Ald, Gowanlock, to have a joint report from the City Engineer and Assessment Commissioner as to the cost and advisability of the four mooted methods of obviating the danger of the present southern entrance, viz. Track depression; the overhead bridge: the Queen-street entrance, and the Garden-avenue entrance.

There was no discussion.

Chance for Sunny Ways

Evans, a gifted speaker from Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Evans is a traveled, cultured woman, having just returned from a two years' tour on the Continent. She was the organizer of the Detroit Association, which is one of the best in the American organization. All interested in young women's work should not fail to wear her. The chair will be taken by Hon. S. H. Blake. Short addresses will also be given by Rev. W. W. Weeks, Rev. G. R. Turk and Rev. Dr. Mc-Tavish. The year's work will be presented by Mrs. Eljas Rogers, president. Miss Dora Mc Murtry will sing.

Chance for Sunny Ways.

The City Solicitor reported the power of the city to close any street to cattle driving. Residents of Paimerston-avenue are complaining that they are at present being made sacrifices in this respect for the convenience of the rest of the West End. Palmerston-avenue is in Ward 5, and Ald. Woods and Denison represent the ward. It is no wonder, herefore, that Ald. Gowanlock chuckled when he secured for the two men from the ward the contract of choosing some other victims on some other street in their ward, or of leaving the Palmerstonites unappeased.

Hawes' (Broadway) $3 hat was, until recently, a comparative stranger to Torontonians who have been looking for a very superior quality at a moderate price. This hat fills the whole bill. J. & J. Lugsdin, 122 Yonge-street, are sole agents for it here and just now are showing the season's new styles in hard and soft, black and popular shades. They are among the shapeliest blocks of the season.

I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with pheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me." ed
