MANY MAKE FLIGHTS,

Mineola, I.I., Oct. 18.—More than 70 persons, in groups of ten and twelve, took short flights today in the giant Handley-Page airplane, which flew from Nova Scotia to Long Island last week in a non-stop jump.

Vice-Admiral Mark Kerr was in charge of the flights, which were of short duration, and Major Herbert G. Brackley was the pilot. According to present plans, the giant airplane will be flown to Chicago and from there to Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal, to demonstrate the possibilities of commercial flying in the United States and Canada. Weather Notes.

The pressure is high over the greater portion of the continent, and fair, cool weather prevails over the Dominion.

Sir Adam Beck as, en route to his auto from the east end hall last auto from the east end hall last night, after the political meeting, he made this admission to the little returned soldier who on the previous evening had been denied a hearing on the floor of the Masonic temple. In fact, there was even the semblance of a tear in the eye of the hydro chief. "Why did you do it?" he continued, as he was in the act of shaking hands with the returned man, who had extended his hand. "It was most unfair. Why didn't you come to my office about it? why did you spring it just before the election?" "Hydro! Hydro! Hydro!" jeered the crowd, for during the meeting, no matter what the subject being dealt with, Beck always came back to his pet one. "Will hydro be turned off on Tuesday if Beck loses?" asked one of the crowd.

Labor tracts were spread about in the crowd, and even Sir Adam was handed one.
Very few people realized the great Very few people realized the great strain under which Pat Welch labored as he spoke at the meeting. He is a former patient at the Sanatorium, discharged as incurable, He has only been in the city since March 2, but that length of time was sufficient for him to learn of various incidents at the Sanatorium, of which he spoke at the meeting. During the day he lost considerable blood so that by the time of the meeting he was very weak. As he arose to speak a friend sitting near assisted him. Once he had entered the argument, however, he fought with tenacity.

As Sir Adam sped homeward in his car the taunts of those assembled in front of the hall followed him.

Captain D'Annunzio and Professor Zanella in Open Break.

Fiume, Thursday, Oct. 16.—Professor Zanella, leader of the Italian population of Fiume, who recently came to an nunzio, has left the city for an unknown destination. His business associates were left in conduct of his affairs during his absence, but are unable to give any information as to the reason for Professor Zaneila's departure. Dispatches received here from Trieste state that he was in that city, but stayed only an hour. Disturbances are report-ed throughout Flume, and a large part of the business interests are reported to be going over to the support of Professor Zanella because of a heavy levy having been laid upon the town by the forces of occupation.

Capt. d'Annunzio has prohibited the sale in Fiume of the Corriere Della Sera of Milan because of the "hostile atti-tude of the paper toward Fiume." The Milan newspaper has maintained a cold reserve toward the d'Annunzio enter-

Milat reversals and cold reserve to ward the d'Annunzio enterprise.

Newfoundland Fishing Banks, Oct. 18.

—The steamer Chicago arrived this morning with the story of the rescue of the rescue of the nettire ship's company from the "unlucky thirteen" lifeboats, after the Venezia had been abandoned.

It took the Chicago's crew one hour and ten minutes after it reached the scene to effect the rescue of the Venezia's passengers from the lifeboats, in which they had taken refuge after the flames had enveloped their ship. By noon all survivors had been made comfortable, and given dinner on the Chicago, and that vessel had resumed her voyage to New York. The Chicago first head the Venezia's wireless call for help when 80 miles away.

The 100 bags of mail on the Venezia were taken off and brought here on the Chicago. The Venezia's passenger list included 37 cabin, mostly French, and 163 steerage, mostly Syrians homeward shound. The Venezia was bound from Havana to St. Nazaire, when she met with disaster. The fire started in her forward hold, where the cargo consisted of rum and sugar. It spread over the entire vessel from there, and she was ablaze all over when abandoned. Capt. Boniface was the last man to leave the ship.

SMITH RESUMES FLIGHT. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Capt. Lowell H. Smith started on his westward flight in the transcontinental air race at 7:15.57 this morning. His next stop will be Rock Island, Ill. CTATUS IN LEACH STATUS IN LEAGUE?

Americans Would Like To Know.

New York, Oct. 18.—The News-Tribune, commenting editorially on "Canada and the League," asks where the Dominion will rank in a national sense as a result of gaining unqualified independence through equal voting power in the league of nations and in view of the transformation of Canada's relations with Great Britain. The Tribune says that Americans would welcome Canada's own interpretation of her status in the league.

REDS HOISTED WHITE FLAG.

London, Oct. 18.—The white flag was hoisted over the Bolshevik fortress of Kronstadt on Friday night, according to a Helsingfors dispatch quoting a Finnish general staff report.

Gen. Yudenitch has captured Krasnoye-Selo and Gatchina, south of Petrograd, where he met workingmen from the city who asked that the northwestern Russlan army refrain from shelling Petrograd, and pledging, if this promise was given, to join the anti-Bolsheviki, according to a Helsingfors dispatch received here.

rograd there is considerable obscurity, due to the conflicting and contradictory reports. There seems to be little doubt that the army commanded by General Yudenitch is within a comparatively short distance of the city, but the rapidity of its advance during the first days of the offensive does not seem to have been maintained. General Yudenitch, in his advance, has drawn his troops into a rough semicircle from Krosnaia Gorks, on the northwest of Tsarskoe Selo, which is almost due south of Petrograd.

Severe fighting Continues.

Further south, the Yudenitch army is said to have reached a point near the city of Luga, eighty miles distant from Petrograd. Reports have been received, however, that further advance has been held up along the line connecting Gatchina and Pskov, on which Luga is situated.
