SURVEY PARTIES DELAYED. But It Isn't Altogether the Opposition's Fault.

OTTAWA, June 3.-(Special.)-In the house this morning R. L. Borden was informed that Judge Cassels would be back in Ottawa this month to resume the marine enquiry and that a bill was before the senate to relieve him of exchequer court work. The house spent the afternoon in committee of supply, an item of $630,- ment had not been asked for one dollar for this service, while R. L. Borden showed that the house had recently passed these items: May 15, public buildings in Manitoba $532,000; May 20, militia, $1,104,895; May 22, postoffice, $5,479,110; June 1, customs, $1,815,000. Why had not the minister realized the importance of the survey item when the house dates?

Mr. Lancaster called attention to the fact that the woman was a 13-year resident of New York. City; that her husband, father and mother are now living there; that after being cooped up from 9 o'clock till midnight with a 17-months-old infant, because she hadn't $4 to pay a poll tax which she wasn't supposed to pay, she was sent back to Toronto thoroly destitute.

The letter requests that she be allowed to pass into the States without further molestation.

If his request is refused, Mr. Gurofsky will apply to the provincial authorities for a certificate of deportation.

been made in the case of Artist Steinheil, who, with his mother-in-law, Madame Japy, was murdered in his house early Sunday morning.

Much attention has been directed to the widow of M. Steinhell, who is a handsome, popular and attractive blonde, and who was in the house at the time of the murder. Especial emphasis is laid upon the fact that she sent away the cook, a large and strong woman, the day before the crime, and declined the offer of a watch dog made by some neighbors.

Attention is called also to the circumstance that the only traces of ink from the overturned ink well were found upon the bed upon which Madame Steinheil was discovered bound and gagged. It is alleged also that the beds upon which Steinheil and his mother-in-law were supposed to have been sleeping were only rumpled and the indications all are that Mme. Japy's body was placed on the bed after she body was placed on the bed after she had been strangled.

Mme. Steinhell is prostrated and hysterical and has been removed to the residence of a friend, Count Arlen, for
