day, the last regularly scheduled day of the Aqueduct and Pimlico meetings. An attempt was made to arrange an extra session at Aqueduct of five days to take the place of the Empire City dates, which have been cancelled, but after a long conference at the track it was decided to call everything off. More than a dozen horseowners were willing to subscribe $500 each to defray a possible loss accruing from an extension of the Aqueduct meeting, but it is understood that the Jockey Club stewards refused to sanction the plan. A number of layers were also ready to chip in, but J. P. Dwyer declared that they could not be taken into consideration. WHIPPET DOGS RACE Oakley and Flyaway Wins the Dufferin Handicap—Results.

The Dufferin Handicap, the Canadian Whippet Club's Handicap for whippet dogs, was run Saturday at the Dufferin Park track. Eight dogs were entered. E. Call's Trixle's Pride, Anderson's Prince Albert, J. Murray's Fred, W. Smith's Nip, Campbell's Oakley Flyaway and Oakley Swallow, Tovey's Steady Girl, W. Miles' Mrs. Nancy.

In the first heat four dogs started, Trixle's Pride, Nip, Steady Girl and Oakley Swallow. Trixie's Pride was first under the wire, with Steady Girl second. In the second heat, Prince Albert, Fred, ley Swallow. Trixie's Pride was first under the wire, with Steady Girl second. In the second heat, Prince Albert, Fred, Oakley Flyaway and Mrs. Nancy started. Oakley Flyaway won by a length from Prince Albert.

The final heat proved a surprise to the talent. Trixie's Pride was conceded to have more than an even-money chance to win. The winner, however, proved to be Campbell's Oakley Flyaway, with a handicap allowance of 32 yards. At the crack of the gun all four dogs were slipped evenly. Oakley Flyaway jumped into the lead and set a terrific pec on the rail. Steady Girl and Prince Albert fought it out neck-and-neck four lengths behind the leader. Trixie's Pride was last, eight leigths behind. The favorite, however, running strong, closed up a blg gap, but she was unable to catch the galloping Oakley Flyaway. Campbell's dog won by a length and a half. Steady Girl got the place from Prince Albert by a length. The time was fast, 14 seconds flat. Summary:

The Varsity half division played a great game, and their kicking, running and tackling was excellent.
