

HAMILTON APPENINGS

ASSESSMENTS TO BE SECRET
Last Ill-Feeling Be Caused—Hamilton's Big Trouble.

HAMILTON, April 8.—(Special.) John Elliott, 247 North Hughson-st., a barber, died to-night.

The board of control this afternoon decided against publishing the assessment rolls, as it would cause ill feeling in the city. They may be published next year, and the assessors will endeavor to prepare a more equitable assessment. A grant of $500 was made to the police benefit fund and one was promised to the fund the firemen contemplate. Hon. J. M. Gibson, and officers of St. George's Society, requested that arrangements be made for the reception of Earl Grey on April 22.

The 18th Royal Regt. has received an invitation to go to St. Catharines on May 24.

Chance for Some Lucky Sport.
Some Hamilton sports are getting up a drawing, the prize being transportation to San Francisco and a ring-side ticket for the Johnson-Jeffries fight. H. B. Winton delivered an address on the moon before Hamilton Astronomical Society to-night. It was announced that William Bruce had installed a new telescope in his observatory with an eight and a half inch lens, which is larger than any other telescope in this section of Ontario. He will allow it to be used for inspection of Halley's comet.

Boy Attacked by a Dog.
Hearing shrieks in the back yard, Mrs. Joseph Carson, 61 Mulberry-st., rushed out to see her little boy being shaken and bitten by a pet collie dog. After a hard battle she managed to separate it from the boy. He was badly bitten about the face, ears, arms and legs. The dog is being kept for a day or two to see if it shows signs of rabies.

The Hamilton Jockey Club announced this morning that owing to the killing of the Miller bill it would hold its spring meeting as usual.

Thieves broke into the building of Bennett & Sons, West King-street, this morning, and after rifling the tills set fire to the building. The fire loss was $300.

Stating that her sister, Mrs. Baker, and her niece, Wilhelmina and Minnie, were killed by Indians in Texas in 1883, Mrs. Logan McCann has issued a writ to have them declared legally dead. Mrs. McCann wants to be able to give a clear title for some property that belonged to her late brother, who died intestate. The Bakers had not been heard of for 30 years and were last known to be in Texas.

John Moodie is being boosted by the Liberals here for the vacant position on the beach commission.

The license commissioners have transferred the license of the Terminal Hotel from James McLarty to J. P. Mulhern.

Battle for Child's Custody.
A legal battle may ensue over the custody of Clara Alice Dallas, a ten-year-old child who was recently taken off the stage at a London time theatre and retained by the Children's Aid Society. The Dallas girl has been singing on the stage for several months, and her mother, Mrs. Polly Grier, lives at 45 King William-street, this city. Mrs. Grier said she got the child from a man named Dallas, who lives in Montreal, when it was seven weeks old. A year ago, she said, he tried to regain possession of the girl and Mrs. Grier then fled to England with her. She says that if the society in London hand the child over to the father, as it threatens to do, she will bring action against them.

The retail grocers have entered a strong objection to the wholesalers raising the price of goods to them.

EXPRESS COS. ARE CARRIERS
Admit That They Are More Than Forwarders—Contract Liability.

OTTAWA, April 8.—"We cannot protect anyone," said Justice Mabee at the railway commission this morning, in going over the new form of contract which will be used by the express companies. "We will leave it so that unless the shipper states otherwise just what the value of the parcel is, we can claim no greater liability against the express companies than fifty dollars. If a parcel is worth more, the shipper should say so. This provision must be made clear to the shipper when signing a contract, and in order to make sure of it must be printed at the top of the contract form. This may work an injustice, but we can't help it. It is carelessness that causes the shipper to neglect this, and we can't protect the shipper against himself."

The express companies, as represented by F. H. Chrysler, made an important admission and one for which the Manufacturers' Association and others have long been looking. It was to the effect that the express companies recognized themselves as "carriers" and not as mere "forwarders."

The companies agreed this morning to inform every shipper just how near the real destination the goods could be carried and how the shipper could arrange to pay for the complete carriage beforehand. They probably issue maps showing the various cities and the delivery limits therein.

YOUTH DIES FROM BLOW
IN FIGHT OVER A GIRL

Young Rivals Were To Fight It
Out in Prize Ring Style, With
S. S. Official as Referee.

PASSIC, N. J., April 8.—Gilbert Trehou died to-night from a solar plexus blow received in a prize fight last Tuesday night. With brief intermissions, he had been unconscious since he was lifted out of the ring and carried to the hospital.

Frank Kleiser, who is named in a warrant as the other principal, is missing, and the police hear he has fled to Canada.

Henry Knackstedt, superintendent of a Presbyterian Sunday school here, said to have been the referee, was arrested yesterday and released in $500 bail.

Trehou and Kleiser were both nineteen years old, both pupils of the Passaic high school, and both of good family. Reports of their quarrel differ, but it is understood that there had been bad blood between them for some time over a girl, and that on Easter Sunday they agreed to settle their differences with the gloves. Both were trained boxing, and last Monday declared themselves fit. Word was passed about among their friends and Tuesday night a small crowd met in a vacant lot, believed on oil tank and squared off the ring. Lanterns were hung on the ropes, seconds were chosen, and a time-keeper and referee named. The hat was passed for a purse to the winner, and the collection given to a stakeholder.

The boys stripped of their underwear and went at it hammer and tong. According to accounts of eye-witnesses, in the seventh and final round, Kleiser caught Trehou flush on the jaw with a heavy swing, Trehou staggered, and before he got to his feet again, Kleiser shot in a body punch.

GALT THEATRE BURNED
Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars Loss to Building and Tenants.

GALT, April 8.—(Special.)—Galt this afternoon suffered from a $25,000 fire in the Opera House block, off Queen-square. It gutted the upper storey, completely destroying the play-house, stage scenery and property.

The fire was supposedly caused by an electric light wire in the stage end, and was prevented from reaching a row of six stores on the ground floor, but these were badly damaged by water. Five firemen had a narrow escape when part of the floor fell in. Losses: Opera House block, owned by James Scott, value $30,000, insured $10,000; tenants, Lockhardt & Company, plumbers, loss $1500; insured; A. G. Bruce, painter and wall paper, loss $1000; insured; H. Horton, butcher, loss $200; no insurance; J. A. McDonald, grocer, loss $1000; insured; W. H. Hunter, sporting goods, loss $600; no insurance; J. Helm, upholsterer, loss $1000; no insurance.

There was a play on last night, but moving pictures have been the great feature of the house for a year, and it is not surprising that the opera house will be restored. The building blocks East Main-street and public feeling favors the requirement of the property for removal and the extension of the street.

News to-day from Herbert Panabaker, late of Hespler, who moved to the west last fall, said that all his stock and implements at Riding Mountain, Man., were destroyed by fire, with no insurance.

Wanted 50 boys between 14 and 16 years of age to carry bulletins Saturday afternoon. Call at World Office at 1 o'clock to-day.

Great Age of Halley's Comet.
Century Magazine.
While Halley's comet has been identified as a member of our system for over 5000 years, certain characteristics of its orbit lead us to believe that it has been with us at least ten or perhaps 100 times as long as that. According to all accounts, it was a magnificent object at the time of the Norman conquest in 1066. Its head was equal to the full moon in size and its tail increased to a wonderful length.

MONTREAL THESPIANS
ESSAY "THE BELLS"

In the Earl Grey Competition at the Royal Alexandra
Last Night

Punch's famous advice to those about to get married, "Don't," might be probably considered by amateurs of the drama before selecting some extremely powerful vehicle in which to display their histrionic ability. The name of Sir Henry Irving is so indelibly associated with "The Bells," the drama which was presented by the Montreal Thespian at the Alexandra Theatre last night, that it requires a very strong and capable "Mathias" indeed to satisfy an audience who have once seen the late famous tragedian in that role.

Not that Craig Campbell as "The Burgomaster" showed marked inferiority. On the contrary, his work stamped him as an exceedingly clever actor, but the weakness of his support was very evident. At times the play dragged appreciably, notably in the betrothal scene, but in the third act Mr. Campbell's interpretation of the character of Mathias, and his portrayal of the murderer was splendid, and he richly merited the generous applause accorded him. His enunciation was good and clear, in marked contrast to some of the other members of the company, whose voices at times failed to reach the audience.

Maurice Pours conducted his orchestra with more energy than has been seen in a Toronto conductor's box for ten years. Signor Creatore has nothing on Mr. Pours in the matter of gymnastics except that he stayed on the dais instead of running about.

The materials vastly less promising than those of the Ottawa Symphony, he achieved some astonishing results. The quality of tone was never inferiorly good and the wood-wind was sometimes got of tune, but there was a dash and spirit about the performance that made the segment overture perhaps more interesting than the much smoother and better-tuned work of the Ottawas.

The presence of two very diminutive youngsters doing good work among the second violins was a pleasing feature.

In the solo competitions the following took part: Kolin, Douglas Petherston, Miss Julia Chastie, Miss M. Lachance, vocal; Miss M. Doherty.

At Shea's.
The Shea's Theatre, a great show next week will be head by Margaret Moffat and her company. In Sewell Collin's telephone girl classic "Awake and Sings," Miss Moffat is capably supported by Joseph Graybill, slant Wilkie and the once heard never to be forgotten Claude who acts as the main floor.

As the special attraction Manager Shea has secured the Five Olympians, the sensation of all Europe. They appear in the King model in bronze of the world's greatest classical statue.

Tom Waters, late star of the "Mayor of Langland," is making his first vaudeville appearance here in a quintet planolog with original songs and stories. Another treat is in the appearance of Joseph Graybill, and Clara Lane, in a delightful musical comedy, "A Quiet Honeymoon."

The Five Musical Avolos are always popular with their sweet xylophone music.

Work and Over call themselves "the acrobatic jesters" they are all that and more, too.

Lena Pantzer will be seen here for the first time in her novel dancing numbers. She is a blonde on a balanced spade, on a wire and flincher with particularly artistic dancing number on the floor.

The full closes with a new picture on the kinetograph.

Pinched the Pin.
Nora Hicks, 93 Duchess-street, colored, 25 years of age, a domestic, was taken to hospital to-day. Devotee Montgomery, charged upon the complaint of Harry Ross, 188 Sherbourne-street, with the theft of a diamond pin. Ross declares that prior to April 5 and the lady were strangers. On that date they became suddenly and amiably acquainted. Shortly afterwards Ross again saw her, and she declares, the pin went with the lady.

NEW STRENGTH IN THE SPRING
Nature Needs Aid in Making New Health-Giving Blood.

In the spring the system needs toning up. In the spring to be healthy and strong you must have new blood, just as the trees must have new sap. Nature demands it and without this new blood you will feel weak and languid. You may have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp stabbing pains of neuralgia. Often there are disfiguring pimples or eruptions on the skin. In other cases there is merely a feeling of tiredness and a variable appetite. Any of these are signs that the blood is out of order—that the "door line" has been put to this time two. What is needed to put you right is a tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new, rich, red blood—your greatest need in spring. This new blood drives out disease, clears the skin and makes weak, easily tired men and women and children bright, active and strong. Miss A. M. Dugay, Lower Cove, N. S., says: "I believe I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My blood seemed to have turned to water. I was as pale as a sheet; I suffered from headaches and floating specks seemed to be in every part of my vision. As the trouble progressed my limbs began to swell, and it was feared that drooping had set in and that my case was hopeless. Up to this time two doctors had attended me, but notwithstanding I kept growing worse. It was at this juncture I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking a few boxes I was much improved. I kept on using the Pills until I had taken eight boxes, when my health was completely restored."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medical Co., Brockville, Ont.

Old settlers along the Mississippi can tell how a thousand acres here and there went once in a while, thus changing the topography of things and furnishing a place of refuge for the careless shanty boatman. The Mississippi is big and muddy; it would be less muddy if its turbulent tributary, the Missouri, was not always contributing samples of real estate which it has picked up in a devious journey of

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a brain weakness, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its cause (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are such as the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weakness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone can break this chain in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour.

VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY

Proves that as night succeeds the day this may be every certainly secured by a course of than by any other known combination. No surely as it is taken in accordance with the directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored, and a new existence imparted in place of what has so lately seemed worn-out, used up, and valueless.

This wonderful medicine is suitable for all such constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement of the system in which it would not be of great service. It is not a stimulant, but a restorative, and it is not a sedative, but a tonic. It is a medicine that should be in every household, and it is a medicine that should be in every hospital.
