OFFER FOR NEWARK FRANCHISE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—President Barrow of the International League, said today that the Newark franchise had not been sold. He asserted, however, that he had received offers from three different persons, each of whom was willing to pay $25,000, the price asked.

LEFT-HANDERS LOOK GOOD TO JOE TINKER

Cubs' Manager to Carry Large Staff of Port-Siders—Baseball Gossip.

BRI Donovan is a great admirer of Ty Cobb. Recently he remarked that, although he has slowed up in his running, he has been a favorite ever since he joined the team because he had his mind made up to do it. Donovan thinks that he will be able to steal 100 bases the coming season if he tries.

The passing of Wilbur Good from the Cubs will cause many of the old-time patrons of the game to grieve. He has been a favorite ever since he joined the team after being scouted from the Boston Club. Tinker could not carry more than five outfielders, so Good had to go.

Jimmy Smith, the kid shortstop on the Chicago staff last summer, will get a chance with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

President Navin of the Tigers was loud in his determination not to take over any of the 100 players when peace was signed two months ago. He has broken that pledge, for he bought Fredrickson of the Brooklands a few days ago, and paid a big price for him, too.

Manager Tinker hinted that he might secure another left-handed pitcher while he is down east this week. Joe is going to stock up on the southpaws and use them against the different clubs if they are successful.

Down in Cincinnati some of the scribes seem to think it will be possible for the Reds to play the schedule out the coming season without the services of Fred Toney. Schnelder and Moseley will be able to fill in even if Toney decides to stick to his Gocce Hill home.

Pitcher George Davis of the Boston Braves does not want to report to the Boston team on March 1, as his contract demands, because he is working hard to get his diploma from the Harvard law school this year.

Schaller, former member of the White Sox outfield, but now a star member of the San Francisco Seals, is a holdout. He wants more money before he agrees to report to Manager Wolverton the coming spring. Schaller was a star hitter or the team, and he may get his raise.

Nap Rucker says his left arm feels just as strong as it ever did. He thinks he can go out next summer and win twenty-three games, but he fails to tell how many games he may lose in trying to win that many.

Harry Sinclair has subdivided and little has been heard from the oil magnate for the last three weeks. He has turned over his baseball affairs to Pat Powers and Billy Murray of the Newark Club.

Josh Devore will quit quite at home next year with the Phillies. He has played in every world's series since 1911, except last fall, and he thinks now that he will be in the 1916 scrap.

Old John Hummel, veteran infielder and outfielder of the Dodgers, has been released at last. He never was a speedy man, but he always happened to be around where the ball was when he was in the game.

Roger Bresnahan continues to get a lot of space in the papers, although his case has been disposed of so far as President Weeghman of the Cubs is concerned. Roger can get his salary cheque every two weeks for the next two years, but he will have to mark time between each pay day.
