London Times Thinks Quebec Will Accept Verdict of Canadian People.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

London, Nov. 25.—Discussing the Canadian election, The Times observes that Sir Robert Borden has declared, with his usual blunt sincerity, that, if elected, he will root up the patronage evil, a system so engrained in the Canadian administration, that it threatens to become a veritable ineradicable vested interest, while public opinion is so used to it that it hardly seems to most men an evil at all. Against this and other handicaps Sir Wilfrid Laurier has several advantages. His anti-conspiracy program is decidedly veiled by his support of a referendum, and he has a solid nucleus of safe seats in Quebec. His personal qualities, long record of services, eloquence and experience as a political campaigner are all very valuable assets.

In spite of all this, the probability is that Borden will have a substantial majority. If that is the result, the immediate reinforcement of the Canadian troops will be assured, and Quebec, if it does follow the advice of the French-Canadian press, will accept the verdict and abandon the active opposition to conscription.

ARCHBISHOP SILENT

Head of Kingston Diocese Made No Reference to Recent Trial.

Special to The Toronto World.

Kingston, Nov. 25.—It was expected that Archbishop Smead, would make some remarks on the recent trial at St. Mary's Cathedral today, but his grace made no reference to it.

Next Friday the priests of the diocese will wait on the archbishop and present him with a purse of money on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the conscription act, and it is understood that his grace would then have a statement to make about the recent trial.

Part of G. T. Railway Shop Gutted by Fire at Brockville

Brockville, Nov. 25.—The Grand Trunk Railway shops narrowly escaped destruction last night by a fire which broke out in the oil room and spread to the northern annex, wherein were located the works of the blacksmiths and fitters. This was completely gutted and much valuable machinery was ruined. The fire brigade succeeded in saving the main structure, with the exception of a portion of the roof. Several engines in the building were safely removed.

The blaze threatened surrounding residential property, which was saved by the roofs being covered with snow. The loss will run into the thousands, and is covered by insurance.

THE WEATHER

Observatory, Toronto, Nov. 25.—Decid-ely cold weather prevails from Ontario to the maritime provinces, with the cold wave still centred near Lake Superior. In the west conditions are more moderate.

RATES FOR NOTICES

At Shear's This Week.

Five acts, all of headline calibre, come to Shear's Theatre this week.

Bostock's Riding School is perhaps the most pretentious novelty ever presented to vaudeville patrons. Magnificent horses, famous circus riders, are shown in an offering entitled "How Circus Riders Are Made." Dolly

Connolly returns with her partner and accompanist, Percy Wenzel, in a novel "home selection." Everett Ruskay's pleasing sketch, "Cranberries," is another feature of the bill, while

Clark and Verdi provoke much laughter in their portrayal of two Italian characters. Marie Fitzgibbon, "the woman with the sense of humor," is another feature of the bill. The clever, witty, and charming, Bob Bacon, se-

Five are exponents of the new music known as the "Jazz." Rome and Cox, in bright comedy chatter. The Four trump of well-known melodists, and the Kinograph are also on the bill.

Loew's Theatre.

"Arms and the Girl," the feature photodrama of this week's offerings at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden, is a particularly timely picture. In it Billie Burke, the star, is seen to splendid advantage in a story dealing with the great war. The vaudeville attractions, which will be headed by Harry Staples and players in "Children of France," also include George N. Ros-ent, the London music hall entertainer; Will and Garry Rogers in a timely comedy sketch; the Six Stylish

Stoppers, offering an unique variety of dances; Chauncey and Kathleen

Jessen; Leonard and Ward, offering "The Hebrew Father and Son," and Peppino and Perry.
