'T was safest, best, to leave thee, Love, For flight may end both hopes and fears; I did not wish to grieve thee, Love, For Love's resistless when in tears.

No splendid shrine I made thee, Love, Thy presence hallowed every spot; No kind farewell I bude thee, Love, For Love's last look is ne'er forgot.

PAY TO-DAY AND TRUST TO-MORROW.—The clerk of the United States House of Representatives having sent an order for several copies of "The Chronotype," to be sent to members of Congress, with the usual offer to pay at the close of the session, the editor responds to the application as follows:—"We take this mode of replying, that we do not furnish the 'Chronotype' on trust. If Uncle Sam wants it from this date to the 4th of March, he is hereby informed that he may have it for sixty-two cents in advance, which he may send us in gold, silver, or copper, or go without the paper.—This is the way we treat all others, and we do not see why we should treat differently an old gentleman who is squandering his money in quarrelling with his neighbours, and who has less gumption in finances than any one of the thousands of individuals who have heretofore subscribed for our 'valuable paper.'

A Wond to Durlists.—There is more true courage and generosity in bearing and forgiving an injury for the love of victue, than in requiting it for another; because the thing is much more difficult. Bulls and bears have courage enough, but it is a brutish courage, whereas ours should be sucl as should become reasonable creatures and Christians.—Gasten, Marquis de Renty.

Dring for Love.—A gallantold Scotch officer was narrating the unfortunate history of an early riend who had been jilted by a fickle beauty in avour of the Duke of  $\Lambda$ —, and he concluded its story thus, in a tone of much emotion—" Poor bellow, he never got over it; no, Sir, it was the best regal to him;" and then, after a pause of much gather than the proposal of t pathos, he added with a faltering voice not live above fifteen years after it."

of men?"—"They is singular when they pays their debts without being axed to do it a dozen times."—"Young women are beautiful. What is that which comes after women?"—"It's the fellers, to be sure, they are always after the young women."
"That will do?"—"American Paper.

Bed Warmers, Space Bed

Airers, Sp.c. Sp.c.

GREATER comfort or a more decided luxury can scarcely be conceived than results from the use of these Bed Warmers. Unlike all other attempts to heat beds by hot water, which confine the heat to the feet only, and warm the bed very inefficiently, however applied, in consequence of their warming merely the clothes, the leet, or whatever immediately touches their surface, DELL'S PATENT BED WARMERS depend for their decided advantage over all other plans ever before introduced, on the fact that they warm the air as well as the clothes; a difference so decided and remarkable, that invalids and others have invariably expressed their astonishment to find themselves in a complete warm air bath from the feet to the very shoulders the temperature appearing to remain undiminished, and the water still found warm enough in the mortning to serve, for washing, which to travellers and early risers is another advantage in favour of this apparatus; and will render their use indispensable in Club-houses. Hotels, Boarding-houses, &c. Professional gentemen and all persons of sedentary habits will find will render their use indispensable in Club-houses, therefore noticedly keeping up, in small rooms, an agreeable and healthy warmth, as no vapour, smell, or other annoyance can possibly be experienced by using this contrivence for producing an agreeable summer heat.

Person teurned from hot climates, experiencing all the evils of cold, will find the equable temperature afforded by this invention particularly grateful; and all aged or other persons who are martyrs to cold will find their application so simple and effectual that they may place one or more on a couch, or in any easy chair, and thus receive the foll benefit of the genial warmth communicated. And in cases of severe cold one of these Bed Warmers, covered with a flannel, and applied to the soles of the feet for two or thre

CAUTION.

The citizens of New England are respectfully informed that in consequence of the great popularity which the above named Indian Vegetable Pills have earned by their astonishing goodness, a gang of counterfeiters are now industricutly engaged in palating on the unsuspecting, a value ess and perhaps dangerous medicine, under the name of Indian Vegetable Pills.
