Durand swore that he used the whip to knock the flies off the horse and he said the horse was traveling four miles an hour at a broken trot.
At this point Sgt. Ross arose and declared he would wager $1,000 that he could walk four miles an hour himself. "Remember you're on oath," cautioned Mr. Sinclair.

"Oh! I can tell the truth if I'm not sworn," replied the sergeant.
Durand was convicted of the offence and fined $5, which in consideration of the family dependent on him was permitted to stand.

BODY IN MORGUE IDENTIFIED TODAY

Man Killed in I. C. R. Yard Saturday Night Was Edward Earle of St. John's Nfld.

The body of the man killed on the I.C.R. tracks near the freight sheds on Saturday night, was positively identified as Edward Earle of the morgue this morning by Miss Jessie Mogilton, of St. John's, Newfoundland, who has been residing for a week with Mrs. King, who has a boarding house at 224 Union street.

Miss Moulton had been a neighbor of a family named Earle in St. John's, and on seeing the name of the unfortunate man in Monday's newspapers as being the victim of the accident, she was impressed with an idea that he was the man with whom she was acquainted. One look at the dead man's features as the body reposed on a crude slab in the morgue convinced her that her inference was not erroneous.

To a Times representative, Miss Moulton stated that she left St. John's four years ago, and when she left, Earle was a hot carrier or in a similar occupation and would be in the vicinity of 34 years old.
In the interim, Miss Moulton did not think that Earle had married, but she believed he was engaged, though not positive on that point. She is certain that his sojourn in the city has been brief.

The local police department will communicate with the St. John's police and instruct them to acquaint the mother with the news of the tragic death of her son and to notify her that the body will be interred here.

She is owned by M. W. Rice & Co. of Boston, and after the Timandra's injuries are patched up sufficiently, she will proceed to Boston. She had a big crew of her own away and only the steel bulkhead saved her from New York to Buenos Ayres. The Spartan Prince sank immediately, her crew escaping in small boats and finally landing at a Brazilian port.
The Timandra was on a passage from Buenos Ayres for Boston in ballast, and is commanded by Capt. James McQuarrie.
