AMUSEMENTS

THE McAULIFFE CO.

A Jealous Wife was the Jere McAuliffe Company's offering again last evening in the Opera House, and the melodrama and specialties were much enjoyed. At today's matinee the beautiful melodrama, A Daughter of the People, will be presented and tonight Joe Murphy's great Irish play, Shaun Rhue. On Thursday night, after the regular performance, a number of St. John's amateurs will show what they can do.

There will be matinees today, New Year's day and Saturday. The sale of seats is now going on for New Year's day and the balance of the week.

AT THE NICKEL

In this stirring New York melo-drama the patrons of the Nickel will witness some most realistic fire scenes, turn-outs of the New York departments, and a heart-interesting drama interwoven. In the picture by Pathe Freres entitled, Dear Old Grandma, a treat of the rarest quality is in store. This is a picture without a suspicion of violence or plot—a sweet, simple story of a loving old lady who, like the fairy-tale, found two babies in the cabbage patch and raised them to manhood and womanhood. The lesson in maternal love and filial affection in this picture is pointed. A Nature Faker's Troubles is a queer comedy about a professor, as usual a near-sighted one. Miss Edwards will sing and Mr. Cairns also, while the Dramagraph Company will conclude their farce, A Night Out, which has been causing such fun. Then there is the orchestra.

THE YAW CONCERT

Just the news that Yaw is coming should be sufficient to influence musical enthusiasm, and that it has already done so here in connection with the appearance of that wonderful singer in the Opera House, Jan. 14, is unquestioned. Even the advent of a prima donna is not complete now locally without a background of lesser vocal and instrumental artists. There will be no details missing in the concert in January. Frank Kendrie, an eminent baritone, and W. R. Chapman, accompanist and director, will support the prima donna.

MAYOR BULLOCK ACCEPTS LOCAL OPTION PETITION

to the C. T. A. regarding local option was started by Mr. Graham and had been backed by the citizens. The movement was only an advance guard of what would be done. The law was by no means what they would have it or what it ought to be in the interest of the citizenship of the province. The laboring oar should be in the hands of the saloon keepers, the men who wanted to deal out intoxicating liquor and make money out of it. They all felt sure that the mayor, as the representative of the city, and the members of the common council would use their best efforts to further the cause of temperance.

As he (the speaker) read the law it would not be possible for the vote to be taken at any other time than at the civic elections and maintain the secrecy of the ballot. They had attempted a formidable task and hope to accomplish what they had set out to do. If they were not successful they would not halt, but still go forward.

In reply to the mayor, Rev. Mr. Graham said they had not the slightest objection to publicity. The scrutiny of the petitions, however, was a matter for his worship personally. Under the C. T. act public scrutiny was required, but the law did not require it in the present instance.

The mayor asked if it would be satisfactory if he handed the petitions to the common clerk or the recorder for examination.

Rev. Mr. Graham replied that his worship would no doubt take any course his wisdom suggested.

J. Willard Smith added that it was not within the province of the delegation to suggest any course after the petitions had been handed in.

The mayor said he would ask the recorder or common clerk to examine the petitions and if satisfactory he would present them to the common council on the second Monday in January. He hoped their request would be acceded to and that they would be successful.

The proceedings then terminated.

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 29.—The city council is in receipt of communication from the White Candy Co. withdrawing negotiations for the removal of their factory from St. John to Moncton on the ground that the concessions offered by Moncton are not sufficient. The matter is therefore at an end.
