THE YANKEES FILL THE OUTFIELD GAP

Purchase "Whitey" Witt to Take Meusel's Territory—Weather Man Thanked by Eastern Clubs—Late Sport News.

New York, April 18.—Several managers of eastern teams in the big league were thanking the weather man today for having interfered yesterday with their scheduled games, and made it possible for them to play off the postponed contests later in the season when their teams will have reached championship form.

Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, was one of the bosses that was pleased, as his team seemed in for a beating at Boston, when a northeaster broke over the city and stopped proceedings.

The day was not lost to the Yankees, however, as they completed arrangements for the purchase of "Whitey" Witt, of the Athletics, who was expected today to be assigned to the right field berth. This section of the field has been weakened by absence of Bob Meusel, who with Babe Ruth, was suspended until May 20. Witt is a 300 hitter and can play the infield acceptably.

Yesterdays Gamts. The best pitchers battle of the year occurred yesterday in Cincinnati, where the Pirates shutout the Reds 1 to 0. Morrison of Pittsburg, held the Reds to four hits; Lunge yielded seven.
