Mrs. Richard B. Cline.
Friends today learned with keen regret of the death of Mrs. Richard B. Cline, wife of one of St. John's prominent pilots, which occurred just before midnight last night at her home, 264 King street east. Before marriage she was Miss Margaret Miller, daughter of the late William Miller of Fairville, and had devoted her time and talent to the noble work of the trained nurse. Renting Vacant Rooms Is a Public Duty

Adequate shelter is one of the first necessities for man, woman, girl and boy.

The shortage of houses makes the question of shelter a matter for urgent public consideration.

Many well-to-do people are renting rooms to young men and women because they realize that by doing so they render an important service to the community.

Renting vacant rooms is highly profitable, but it is a duty as well.

ST. JOHN MAN SPEAKER.

(Moncton Transcript.)

The speaker before the Rotary Club at noon today in the Brunswick hall, was Leslie Desmond, a St. John Rotarian, who gave a most interesting account of his recent travels in England and on the continent. In the course of his address, Mr. Desmond referred to the numerous reports that the Germans were in straitened circumstances financially. He stated that he wished to correct these errors, stating that at every place which he had visited in Germany the people seemed prosperous and there was a plentiful supply of work and all seemed very industrious. Referring to the status of German money, Mr. Desmond stated that a Canadian or an American could have a pleasant time for two or three days on a $20 note.

The speaker was born in Paris, is of Irish parentage and served overseas in the great war. His address was most interesting, his jocular remarks about the continent being much enjoyed by his numerous auditors. James H. Norton, president, presided.

Among the guests were Arthur Lyman, Montreal; James Stenhouse, Montreal; R. H. Bannan of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., Moncton; W. C. Cross, St. John; Fred Knight, superintendent of the C. N. R. shops at St. Malo, and Mr. Gardner, St. John. Outside Rotarians who were present and made hearty welcome were Messrs. Clinton Brown, St. John; Edward H. Cairns, St. John; Alfred Martin, Halifax; H. S. Moffat, St. John; Leslie Desmond, politician, St. John; and General Sir Alexander Berran, Montreal.

The dwelling, barn and other out-buildings on a farm owned and occupied by Joseph Lawless in the Piquet road, about a mile from the Lower Norton road, in Kings county, were totally destroyed by fire late on Tuesday night.
