

A. Well the first letter was written on the 1st of March and the other on the 2nd of March and the one written on the 1st of March stated that the kiddies were improving somewhat, were better than they had been, and in the other one she stated they aren't well again and one had to be admitted to the hospital, and she is not well herself.

Q. What is the financial situation at home?

A. It is the same as it was when I left. She has had some help through some of the residents of Taber, that is all.
