

sume mmand

Probably Con- Campaign in Africa

Returns to Chief

Now Attracting of the Brit-

ending the discov- how best to wash Chinese embarrassis diverted to the and the war in of bubonic plague and disturbances and ay circles, and the ment are attracting vident from the Hon. Wm. St. John retary of state for ednesday, that the end of the war horizon to be prepared for an fr. Broderick's nu- Roberts' movement bearing

h of the War ans for the present but there is no ion of the govern- appreciable military to office again on no, it is expected, return in October e of commander-in- election.

modation of Gen. Machadodopy looks e public confidence volition of the fu-tion upon the it originally rested, the ultimate settle-

Matters. South Africa think services of United t may be used. "Young Hay use both the Boers Lewis Devillers, the Colony chief rived, to a repre- Associated Press, at Pretoria, public aking matters diffi- cles of his English per feeling was so nts that Hay was glish spy were bed with such quiet at the respect of the

he did not part Britons in the main ar. An American er sympathy added

Perplexities campaign to win e. Failing in this, of his pro-British dived all this, was isoners, and under posed more than of the Boers."

of the recent visit rick at Aylesbury ell, the prisoner's restatement of the as the discovery of letter from the late lowen, Lord Chief to Mrs. Maybrick, e in his client's in- his conviction that ly Condemned. made the basis praying for Mrs. nd so strong is Mr. it had been sent to ridley, secretary of partment, at his rthumberland, ad- nest that he give it

r. Bell started for satisfied with the England. He has a seeing his client her incarceration. Mrs. Maybrick an mother, Baroness very of the Russell s important, and of the Prisoner believe that her e prolonged. -bound Americans by capacity of the London this week opation to play in ts to return next appear at the exposition. "The emed quips as pop- bloume, and Berlin nterpretations of stically received in and that can ac- list is an unknown e attempts to con- ceer but these are instrument as the in Germany, and eeds which secure band are an inno- WORK. (Press.)

1.-Six hundred t on strike at the several days ago morning, pending a

The Island Veterans

List of Ex-Fighting Men Who Parade To-Night Before Lord Minto.

All the Services Represented-Some of the More Prominent Members.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

In the procession which parades to-night in honor of the Governor-General and Lady Minto, Veterans will have an opportunity of seeing for the first time an organization recently formed...

LIEUT.-COL. WOLFENDEN, Commanding Veterans' Association.

The organization to which reference is made, The Vancouver Island Veterans' Association, has been in existence only a few weeks...

J. H. Turner, Lieut. Victoria Rifle Volunteers; Lieut.-Col. Militia Reserve; Henry P. Fellow Cross, Lt. Lieut. Seymour Artillery; Neil McDonald, Gr. M. S. 92nd High-landers.

J. A. Mara, Lieut. 5th Batt. York Co., Upper Canada; J. R. Anderson, 1st Victoria Rifle Volunteers; Ed. Scroppe Stranep, 8th Batt. Quebec; 35th Batt. Simcoe; 34th Batt.; 5th Regt. C. A. Victoria.

W. L. J. Preost, Gr. M. Sgt. Royal Canadian Artillery; Thos. Redding, Staff Sgt. Royal Canadian Artillery.

Hugh Macdonald, N. S. Militia; E. J. Wall, Victoria Rifles; James Blackwood, Sergt. 5th Regt. C. A. W. Armstrong, H. M. 12th Regt. W. A. James, 5th R. C. A. E. B. McKay, Nanshan R. V., and B. C. B. G. A.

F. Dabbage, Royal Navy; Jos. Mellon, late Staff Sgt. R. C. O. E. Homfray, Gr. late Victoria Rifle; 28 years' service; B. C. B. G. A. School of Gunnery, B. C.

J. G. Mann, late Victoria Rifles; Wm. Graham, 9th Queen's Royal Lancers; C. T. Fenwick, 1st Devon Volunteer; H. G. Proctor, Transporter, B. C. A.

F. S. Barnard, Victoria Rifles; Geo. W. Wynne, B. C. B. G. A.; W. G. Cameron, Victoria Rifles; C. N. Cameron, Victoria Rifles; A. H. Maynard, Victoria Rifles; W. Beckford, Victoria Rifles.

Wm. Burns, Sergt. 10th Kent Rifle Vol., and 36th Peel, Ont.; Robert Foster, Pte., 20th Hussars; John J. Coolesky, Petty Officer, Royal Navy; Daniel Mowat, Major Ottawa Rifles; Brinkley Robinson, 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

Alex. Duncan, Sergt. No. 3 Co., 33rd Batt., Canada Militia; Edgar Fawcett, Senior Sergt. Victoria Rifles; James Orr, Lieut., Perth, Ont., Volunteers, 1855; F. R. Sargison, No. 1 Co., Victoria Rifles, 1870.

Drum-Head Service

Will Be Held at Macaulay Point To-morrow Afternoon-Band Concerts.

Details of Mobilization Arrangements About Completed-Tents Pitched.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Advance parties from the corps participating in the mobilization on Monday went down to Macaulay Point to-day to make preparation for the accommodation of the troops.

The following regimental order has been issued by Lieut.-Col. Gregory, commanding: A guard will be formed from all six companies of the regiment as follows: No. 1 Company, 1 sergeant and 1 gunner.

It will be noticed that this list extends from men holding the most responsible posts in the province to use in humbler walks in the community. Surely no other profession but that of arms could produce such a list embracing cabinet ministers, ex-cabinet ministers, judges of the court, the mayor of the city, and members of the civil service.

The drumhead service will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday, and upon the conclusion of the fifth Regiment band will render a concert.

THE KAFFIR. Apart from the "Christian" Kaffir of whom the per centage is very insignificant—the natives are without any religion, though they have an undefined belief in some chance of ruling in South Africa.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Many ludicrous developments happen in the studio of a country photographer...

DESTRUCTIVE WIND STORM

In Western Manitoba and Eastern Assiniboia—Farmers Suffer Severely.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29.—A wind and rain storm passed over the western portion of Manitoba and eastern Assiniboia last night, causing enormous loss to farmers in the district of barns, stables and houses.

At Whitecourt, buildings were demolished and windows broken. The estimated damage is $10,000. Crops were destroyed and farm houses, implements and fences damaged.

At Elkhorn, the Pipestone Creek district suffered severely. Standing crops were almost a total loss. The house of Mr. Taylor blown to pieces and Mr. Taylor and wife injured. W. Lund's house turned 18 feet around, while Mr. Finlay's is a wreck, and a granary was blown half a mile off the site.

At Pilot Mound, the north end of the town was swept by the wind, and the agricultural hall, O. Webster's stable, Gibb & Morton's workshop were laid in ruins.

At Elkton, the Pipestone Creek district suffered severely. Standing crops were almost a total loss. The house of Mr. Taylor blown to pieces and Mr. Taylor and wife injured.

At Elkton, the Pipestone Creek district suffered severely. Standing crops were almost a total loss. The house of Mr. Taylor blown to pieces and Mr. Taylor and wife injured.

At Elkton, the Pipestone Creek district suffered severely. Standing crops were almost a total loss. The house of Mr. Taylor blown to pieces and Mr. Taylor and wife injured.

CANADIAN BRIEFS

Halifax, Sept. 3.—Sir Mackenzie Bowell left this morning for Charlottetown.

Amherst, N. S., Sept. 1.—The body of Capt. John Elderkin, well known in the Maritime Provinces, was found in his son's barn here yesterday. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death. He was 82 years of age.

St. Catharines, Sept. 1.—Capt. Patrick Larkin, one of the best known captains on Lake Ontario, and later more widely known as head of the contracting firm of Larkin, Connolly & Connolly, who have been prominently identified with large government contracts, died last night, aged 70.

Marmora, Ont., Sept. 1.—Jas Derry of Malone, and another man named McLaughlin, were instantly killed by an explosion at Cordova Exploration mine here last evening. Both were engaged in putting dynamite caps on a large charge of dynamite when the explosion occurred.

Ottawa, Sept. 1.—The Premier and his colleagues are in the city. A cabinet council will be convened some time to-day.

HOW WILL THE WORLD END? The opinions of many scientific men, and of imaginative writers, as to how the world will end, are gathered together in a most readable paper by Mr. Herbert C. Frye, in the Peterson's Magazine.

Mr. Frye discusses the theories of such men as Lord Kelvin, who predicted that the world was doomed to die of suffocation; of Mr. Nikola Tesla, who thinks that we may set fire to the atmosphere with our electrical discharges; of Mr. H. G. Wells, who conceives that insects will end life on the world; of Sir William Crookes, who thinks that our food supply will fail; and of others who have predicted the end of the world through collision with a comet, or the supremacy of the beast, oration over man.

THE MEN ARE SPLENDID.

Seymour Hastings O'Leid. There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.

There's a call from a southern country, the clank of a broken chain, The cry of a nation's sadness, the sigh of an empire's pain.