

Especial importance will be attached to practical knowledge of machines, instruments, tests, and objects, in the several departments of Physical and Natural Science, and to drawing from nature or models; but a knowledge of principles will be insisted on.

4. Conditions as to questions, as in junior examination.

III. General Regulations.

5. Successful candidates will be arranged in order of merit—in published lists—which will also state the name of the school sending the candidate for examination. The certificates given will specify the branches in which the candidate has passed.

6. Candidates who pass in the Junior examination, including Classics and Mathematics, will be eligible to enter the Faculty of Arts as students of the first year. Candidates who pass in the Senior examination, with Classics and Mathematics, will be eligible to enter the Faculty of Arts as students of the second year.

Free scholarships in arts will be bestowed on the three highest successful pupils in each examination.

7. The examination will be conducted in writing by Professors of the University, selected for that office by the Corporation, and the examination papers will be filed in the office of the Secretary.

8. Previous to each examination the questions will be prepared by the Professors selected as examiners, and will be approved by the Faculty of Arts.

9. Candidates must lodge in the office of the Secretary, at least three days before the examination, a written application and certificates of character, as above required, accompanied by a fee of $2 for the Junior, and $4 for the Senior examination. Forms of application will be furnished by the Secretary, and successful candidates will receive their certificates without further charge.

10. The first examination under the above regulations will be held in Burnside Hall, on September 20th, 1859, and following days; and the subsequent examinations shall be held annually, at such time as may be found most suitable, and shall be advertised at least three months before the time of holding the examinations.
