Mr. Templeton's Choice

BY MARY REED CROWNIL. Mr. Theophilus Templeton leaned very comfortably back in his crimson brass-nail-studded librarychair, and rested his elbows on the arms, and brought his finger-tips together, and looked very benign and

"A rich man, eh? Well, yes, I am a rich man-what some people would call a very rich man; and the beauty of that?" it is, I made my fortune myself. A rosebud of a mouth, a round, handsomely-chiseled Fred Warrington listened respectfully-a handsome young fellow it did one good to look at, with a wide-awake, frank look in his blue eyes, and a general manly bearing about him that recommended him wherever he went, very especially to ladies.

"And yet, with all your wealth, your beautiful home, your kindly, affectionate nature, you have used all your life in accumulating riches. You have never married—never had a real, give the old man credit for having good taste, will you? You wouldn't mind true home." "That's the rankest kind of non sense, my boy! I never married be cause I never yet saw the woman I wanted. But it's a good thing for a young fellow to settle down-I believe that, if I didn't practice it. I hope you'll marry early, Fred."

A little, twinkling look was in Warrington's handsome eyes. "I agree with you there, sir, to a T.
I think I shall many early."

Mr. Templeton bestowed a satisfied look on him. "All right, my dear boy! Marry early, and marry to please me, and I'll remember you handsomely. I'll give you the house to live in, in summertime, and the avenue residence for wintet. I'll give you ten thousand a year income, and your wife shall have the wept up to her.

Golden Ball, Shoe Store

The Golden Ball Boot and Shoe Store is the oldest established in Mirauichi. It is now if teen years since we commenced business exclusively in the above line, and we can now point with pleasure, to hosts of patrous, who have invariably, purchased from us, during that length of time. The reason is plain. We buy entirely from the best manufacturers, consequently our goods give satisfaction. We might purchase cheap, shoddy goods (that are only meant to sell and not to wear) but by pursuing that policy, it would be impossible to retain our customers. The best goods are the cheapest in the end.

We have full lines of

A. J. LOGGIE & Co. MECHANICAL ORGUINETTE

An Automatic Reed Organ.

"THE ORGUINETTE may now be called a celebrated instrument. In tone it is akin to the Cabinet Organ, but the organ must be manipulated by an artist in order to produce music; the Oscurater is on the other hand entirely mechanical in its action, and at trifling expense it can be made to furnish an unlimited supply of all kinds of music."—Toronto Globe.

"THE ORGUINETTE is indeed a musical wonder. It is a miniature reed organ, with as strong and melodious a tone set the Cabinet Size. It surpasses the Cabinet Organ, for the reason that the ignoramus in music can play it as well as the most accomplished processor. The Orguinette is strong and accurate in its mechanism, and consequently not liable to get out of order."—Montreal Gazette. PRICES, $10 TO $16 Send for Illustrated W. F. ABBOT & Co.
