She Had Missed Her Man.

A teacher in one of the Indian A teacher in one of the Indian schools relates the following incident of an Indian boy's quick thought. He had asked the meaning of the word miss. "To miss," I told him, "is the same as to fail. You shoot at a bird WORK GENERALY, er at a mark and do not hit it; you miss it. You go to a tailor's, for a coat, and your coat fits badly, it is a miss-fit. You hope to enter the middle class next year, but you cannot pass the examination, and so you miss the promotion." His face wore a puzzled air and h shook his head. 'Then,' said I, 'there is anothe meaning of miss. We call a married woman madam, but an unmarried wo-

His face brightened. He smiled and nodded. 'Ah, I see,' said he, 'she has missed her man.'

A Student's Love-Making.

Miss Mary Flynn was studying medi cine and being courted at the sam time. Mr. William Budd was attending to this latter part of the business One evening, while they were sitting together in the front parlor, Mr. Budd was thinking how he should manage to propose. Miss Flynn was explaining certain physiological facts to him.

'Do you know that thousands of people are actually ignorant that they smell with, their olfactory peduncle 'Millions of 'em,' replied Mr. Budd.

'And Aunt Mary wouldn't believe har I told her that she couldn't me when I told her that she couldn't wink without a sphincter muscle!' 'How unreasonable!'

'Why, a person cannot even kis without a sphincter muscle!' 'Indeed!'

'I know it is so,' 'May I try if I can?'

'Oh, Mr. Budd, it is too bad of you to make light of such a subject.' Mr. Budd seized Mary's hand and kissed it. She permitted it to remain in his grasp. 'I didn't notice whether a-a-what do you call it?-sphincter helped me then or not. Let me try again,' he said. Then he tried again, and while he held her hand she explained to him about the muscles of that portion of the

'It is remarkable how much you know about such things,' said Mr. Budd, 'really wonderful. Now, for example, what is the bone at the back
