MONCTON NEWS.

MONCTON, May 26.—At a meeting of the rural deanery of Shediac yesterday, J. W. Y. Smith of Moncton was unanimously elected a governor of the University of King's College for this deanery. Rev. J. Roy Campbell of Dorchester was unanimously elected rural dean.

The adventist conference of the maritime provinces was organized in the church here this morning. Elders Cottrell, Herman, Farmer and Langdon were in attendance. The conference will continue until Sunday.

The taking of evidence in the charge against James Hamill of Point du Chene was continued. Some unimportant statements as to the nature of the wounds on deceased were given and Paul White, round house foreman at the point, testified to seeing also marks in one of the cars that had been on the siding the day of Owen Hamill's death. There was blood on each side of the alleyway leading into the car and one side looked as if it had been rubbed. He also noticed blood on seat and window.

Relatives of England's deceased statesman are coming to light in unexpected places. Some twenty years ago, Walter Gladstone, then a man in the vicinity of forty-five years of age, settled at Bannister settlement, Albert county, about twenty-two miles from Moncton. He married a widow woman named Sweet and settled on a farm. There were three of the Gladstone brothers settled in New Brunswick about the same time, and they claimed to be first cousins of the late Hon. W. E. Gladstone. Walter, as stated above, settled in Albert county, while Morgan located at Fredericton, and William at Buctouche. The only one living today is Morgan. Walter passed away a couple of years ago at the age of 72 years, leaving two sons and a daughter. William, who carried on business at Buctouche and was well known, returned home to the old country shortly before his death. The sons of Walter Gladstone, Frank and Walter, still reside at Bannister settlement, the daughter marrying a man named James Smith of Boston. The three cousins of the great Gladstone, it is said, had considerable money when they came to New Brunswick, but it appears that Walter at least was successful in getting away with most of his money before being any great length of time. Walter lived for a time in St. John and Sussex, and is said to have been a man who was inclined to make the most of life. He was something of an artist and had a good education, teaching school in Albert county for some years.

The estate of the late Albert Cahill of Sackville, admitted to probate this week, is valued at $4,900. The estate of the late Ruth Carloine Hickman, also probated this week, is valued at $4,786, all of which goes to relatives except $100 to Holy Trinity church, Dorchester.

F. R. F. Brown, mechanical superintendent of the Intercolonial, who had an intimation some months ago that he would be required to vacate his position on May 1st, has at last received his official notice of dismissal. No cause is assigned for the dismissal; the charge of offensive partizanship is not even preferred, as Mr. Brown has never shown the slightest indication of partizanship since coming to Moncton. Mr. Jongkins, an importation from Virginia, is expected to assume the duties of the office next week. He has been in th provinces for some weeks. There was apparently some hitch in securing the order of council for Mr. Brown's dismissal, but Mr. Blair appears to have overcome any scruples that his colleagues may have possessed. Mr. Brown goes to Montreal, where he will open an office as consulting engineer. His family preceded him a week or two ago. Mr. Brown took a warm interest in curling and other sports, and Mrs. Brown was active in church work. Their departure from Moncton is deeply regretted, and the utter absence of any cause for Mr. Brown's dismissal causes much dissatisfaction and adds to the unpopularity of the government here, if this were possible.

Bert Glendenning, the well known athlete was married last evening to Miss Minnie Mullin, formerly of St John.

FREDERICTON.

Dr. Seely Injured—The Steamer David Weston Breaks Her Record.

FREDERICTON, May 26.—George Y. Dibblee, T. C. Allen, J. S. Neill, A. J. Gregory and Jas. H. Crocket went over the Canada Eastern this afternoon to Indiantown for the sea trout fishing.

Dr. Seery had a runaway this afternoon, in which he was thrown from his wagon and received injuries to his hand, besides a bad shaking up.

The David Weston arrived here this afternoon at 3.40, beating her usual record nearly an hour.

SHEDIAC ALLEGED MURDER.

MONCTON, May 26.—The taking of evidence was concluded in the Hamill murder investigation at Shediac today. Nothing particularly new was brought out, but there was additional evidence in regard to the finding of blood on the car, and the examination was postponed for eight days. The evidence in the meantime is to be submitted to the attorney general.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

THE INTERNATIONAL LESSON.

LESSON X.—June 5.

GOLDEN TEXT—Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—I Tim. I: 15.

PLACE IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST. Passion week. Friday morning. The trial of Jesus.

HISTORICAL SETTING. Time—The arrest was about one o'clock, Friday morning, April 7, A. D. 30.

The trial before the high priest from about two to five o'clock.

The trial before Pilate, from half past five till seven or eight o'clock.

Place—The palace of Caiaphas and the judgment hall of Pilate, probably in the town of Antonia, just outside of the northwest corner of the temple area, in Jerusalem.

The section includes the arrest and the trials of Jesus before the Jews and before Pilate.

JESUS CONDEMNED.—Matthew 27: 11-26.

Read Matthew 27: 1-34; John 18: 28, 40. Commit verses 21-24.

11. And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13. Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14. And he(a) answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15. Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto (b) the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18. For he knew that for envy they had (c) delivered him.

19. When (d) he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just (e) man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21. The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22. Pilate saith unto them, What (f) shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23. And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out (g) the more saying, Let him be crucified.

24. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a (h) tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this(i) just person: see ye to it.

25. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

REVISION CHANGES.

Ver. 14. (a) He gave him no answer, not even to one word.

Ver. 15. (b) Unto the multitude.

Ver. 18. (c) Delivered him up.

Ver 19. (d) While he was sitting on. (e) Righteous man.

Ver. 22. (f) What then shall I do unto Jesus.

Ver. 23. (g) Exceedingly.

Ver. 24. (h) A tumult was arising. (i) Righteous man.

LIGHT ON THE TEXT.

Circumstances. Jesus went out from the upper room where he had instituted his supper, and with his disciples came to the garden of Gethsemane, near the foot of the Mount of Olives. Here, between midnight and one o'clock, he endured the agony in the garden. He had just returned from the inner shades to his disciples near the gate, when the Roman sodiers approached and Judas betrayed his master to them with a kiss. Jesus was taken first to the high priest and the Sanhedrim, who formulated a charge against him. During this trial Peter denied his Master.

11. Jesus stood before the governor. Pilate, soon after daylight dawned. He was taken to Pilate from his trial before the Sanhedrim.

12. He answered nothing. (1) It was useless to answer. (2) Pilate could easily have found an answer in his works and life.

16. Barabbas. A ringleader in one of those fierce and fanatic outbreaks against the Roman domination which fast succeeded one another in the latter days of the Jewish commonwealth.—Trench. This would naturally make him a favorite. He probably had attractive and popular qualities, like bold Robin Hood, of English history; but he was reckless, and probably had committed robbery and murder (Luke) under the name of patriotism.

24. Washed his hands before the multitude. By this symbol, disowning all responsibility (Duet. 21: 6, 9), as if his words could cleanse his soul from guilt, as the water washes the dirt from his hands.

25. His blood be on us, and on our children. And it was upon them. "Some thirty years later, and on the very spot, was judgment pronounced against some of that best in Jerusalem; and among the thirty-six hundred victims of the governor's fury, of whom not a few were scourged and crucified right over against the praetorium, were many of the noblest of the citizens of Jerusalem."—Edersheim.

GUIDING QUESTIONS.

Subject: The Trial of Jesus.

I. The Arrest.—Where did Jesus go after he had instituted his supper? (Matt. 26: 30, 36). What took place in Gethsemane? By whom was Jesus betrayed? What became of Judas? Tell the story of the arrest.

II. The Trial before the Jewish Leaders—Where was Jesus tried first? (Matt. 26: 57; 27: 2). What was the charge against him? What was the result of the trial? How was Jesus treated by his enemies? Tell the story of Peter's denials. How could Peter, the bold, fail in courage?

III. The trial before Pilate (vs. 11, 14).—Why was Jesus brought before Pilate? (John 18: 31, 32).

What was the accusation? (Luke 23: 2, 5). Was Jesus King of the Jews? How did he explain his meaning? (John 18: 33-38). Why did he keep silence.

IV. Jesus or Barabbas (vs. 15-23).—Who was Barabbas? What choice did Pilate present to the Jews? Whom did they choose? Why? What did the multitude shout? Were these the same people who had cried "Hosanna" a few days before? How was Pilate warned against the crime he was about to commit?

V. What shall I do with Jesus? (vs 24, 25).—What question did Pilate ask? (Mark 15: 12). What did Pilate do with Jesus? How did he try to escape the responsibility for his crime? How do people now try to escape their responsibility for rejecting Christ? Must we all do something with Jesus? Do you know what become of Pilate?

VI. Pilate sentences Jesus (v. 26).—What led Pilate finally to consent to this crime? (John 19: 12). For what was Jesus condemned? What was the sentence?

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

MONCTON, N. B., May 24.—The holiday was marked by more than the usual number of accidents, besides several runaways, shooting accident, which came very nearly having fatal termination, occurred. At Humphrey's mill pond this morning a lad named Bodman, while shooting at a mark with a 32 calibre revolver, shot Edward Whitton, 17 years old, in the breast near the region of the heart. Had young Whitton been hit by the bullet about an inch lower, the ball would probably have pierced the heart. As it was, the bullet was found lodged against the rib above the apex of the heart. The bullet was extracted. The boy is doing well and will recover.

CHATHAM, May 23.—At a special meeting of the town council on Thursday, Wm. Wyse was elected street and road commissioner by the casting vote of the mayor. The offer of George A. Schofield of St. John of $10,700 for the new ten thousand dollar bond issue was accepted.

The community was shocked to hear of the death of Thos. H. Flieger at his summer residence, Escuminac, on Thursday morning. He was ill but a few days, and death is thought to have been caused by kidney complaint. The day before his death he had just completed his seventy-eighth year. He had always been a healthy man and few knew of his last illness until his death was announced. He was born of English parents in Halifax, and came to Chatham with his parents when a boy. In his early manhood he worked at the fish canning business for different operators and about forty-two years ago started in the fish preserving business for himself. He prospered in business and accumulated a large amount of money and property. In his declining years he paid much attention to farming and at his death the latter was the major part of his business. His bereaved family have the genuine sympathy of the community at large. The funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and was one of the largest seen here for a number of years. The floral offerings were most beautiful. One beautiful wreath of flowers, crossed by a band of white satin ribbon, with the word "Father," beautifully worked on it with blue plush, adorned the casket and was placed on the grave after the funeral. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Dr. McKay and Rev. Mr. Hamilton, members of the different choirs attending. The impressive services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hamilton. The pallbearers were F. E. Winslow, William Anderson, Wm. McLean, Wm. Wyse and Dr. Ferguson. The interment was in the family plot in the Riverside cemetery.

The local government has made an additional grant of $200 per year to the Chatham ferry boat and the town council has secured a reduction of fares.

DORCHESTER, May 25.—A very small audience greeted Miss La Dell at Hickman's hall this evening in the entertainment given under the auspices of the rink committee. Those who were present, however, witnessed the best performance of the kind ever given in Dorchester, Miss La Dell's powers as an elocutionist being unlimited. In her representation of children she excelled, but for all that her rendering of several numbers of that nature was marvellous. In the heavier numbers she also proved herself an artist, "The Chariot Race" perhaps being most worthy of notice. "A Proposal Under Difficulties," a farce put on by local talent, went off without a hitch, and proved an acceptable part of the evening's programme.

ST. MARTINS, May 24—The Queen's birthday was observed here by amusements and sports of various kinds. The horse races on the trotting park began at 2 p. m.
