Water Glass PRESERVING EGGS. DIRECTIONS—In order to use water-glass successfully the following plan should be adopted: Take one pound of the Water Glass and dissolve it in one gallon of water that has been well boiled and cooled. Pack the eggs in the vessel in which they are to be preserved—a stone jar is best for the purpose, but any other will suit, provided it is proof against leaking—having stirred the water and water-glass together, pour this on until the top-most layer is completely covered. The reason for boiling the water is obvious, for the process kills any unrefractive germs which may happen to be in it at the time.

ROSEBERY POKES FUN AT ROOSEVELT His Spelling Reform Not Treated Seriously. Unscrupulous People Use the New System but the Virtuous Puzzle Their Brains Over the Old.

HAWICK, Scotland, Sept. 19.—Lord Rosebery, speaking at the jubilee dinner last night of the Harwick Arch Geological Society, of which Dr. Murray, editor of the Oxford New English Dictionary, is president, said amidst laughter that he came especially to hear Dr. Murray's opinion of President Roosevelt, and was disappointed that not a word had been uttered on the subject. Lord Rosebery then humorously referred to Mr. Roosevelt's spelling reform, saying a blow struck at the recognized rule of spelling of the English race was a blow at mortality itself. Conscientious and virtuous people, he said, were hampered by spelling, but the unscrupulous and vicious spelt ahead according to phonetic rules of their own, producing results fully acceptable to themselves and sometimes by others. He was not at all sure that the dictionaries had not filled half the lunatic asylums of the country. The conscientious man got muddled, but at the last moment of his life might be honored by the homage of the president of the United States.

EMPEROR DECIDES TO HOLD COURT IN BOHEMIA Announcement of the Plans of Francis Joseph Creates a Mild Sensation.

VIENNA, Sept. 19.—It is reported that Emperor Francis Joseph decided to spend several weeks each year at Prague, and that he will be accompanied by the cabinet ministers, courtiers and military dignitaries. As His Majesty has been at Prague only a few times during his reign, the report has caused a sensation in German and Czech circles. The Czechs are inclined to regard the Emperor's decision with some uneasiness, as indicating the approaching recognition of the demands for the restoration of the Independent Kingdom of Bohemia, but the Germans decline to admit its political significance.

HE WANTS NO LOAFING IN HIS BARBER SHOP Landlord and Tenant in a Case of Profane Language Heard in Court Today.

A case that took up some little time in the police court this morning was when H. J. Currie charged John Scott, a colored barber, with using insulting language to him on the City Road last Saturday. On the other hand, Scott denied the charge, and claimed that all he told Currie was that he was no gentleman. It appeared from the evidence that the colored barber is a tenant of Mr. Currie's, and has objected to the latter, who does not patronize the barber, but has a habit of sitting in the shop. When a customer comes along and sees a man sitting there he walks away. On Saturday morning last, the barber claims that Currie went into the shop, picked up a newspaper, and was not content with reading it but clipped out a few paragraphs on a receipt for the care of the skin, growing of hair, etc. From this the trouble arose. The barber claims to have simply told the landlord that he was no gentleman, while on the other hand the landlord asserts his tenant was profane. The magistrate informed the complainant that as he was not a customer of the barber shop he had no right there, and had less right to cut a piece out of the barber's paper. If every man who came into the shop cut an item out of the paper there would be a little left in a short time. He then dismissed the case.

A couple of days ago George Earle, a carpenter, swore out a warrant against Wm. Golding, charging the latter with assault. Golding was arrested and yesterday morning remanded to jail as the complainant did not put in an appearance. Earle was notified to be in court at 10 o'clock this morning but was not present. The magistrate said that it was now a case of the King vs. Golding and that Earle was a witness, and he must appear. It was through his oath that the liberty of a citizen was taken away and he had a right to appear in court. If it is found that he had sworn to a lie he could be prosecuted. The police were ordered to bring Earle to court before one o'clock, but as Earle did not appear during the noon hour the case was again adjourned and in the meantime young Golding is confined to jail. The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Stevens took place from her husband's residence at Crouchville this afternoon. Rev. Father O'Neil conducted the burial service at St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

OVERSEAS MAIL IS MAKING UP TIME Delay at Victoria Will be Overcome Tomorrow. A Fast Eastward Run Through the Mountains—Train Will Reach Quebec on the Hour.

CALGARY, Sept. 19.—Within twenty-four hours of leaving Vancouver, the C. P. R. Overseas Mail train heading the Oriental mail to London, has made the 642 intervening miles, has crossed three mountain ranges, climbed to an elevation of 321 above the level of the sea, at the Great Divide, run down this lovely valley of the Bow and through the foothills of the Canadian Rockies to this fair town, the Strathcona City of Canada, to the east of which stretches the broad fertile plains of the Canadian west for nearly 8 thousand miles. Grandeur of scenery now gives place to other views not less inspiring in their way, for here we are at the rim of the vast granitic of the west, and tomorrow's dawn will reveal a country undergoing transformation from a tenantless prairie to a great homestead. In the run through the mountains schedule time has been more than maintained, notwithstanding the weight of the train. The delay in the departure from Vancouver is gradually being overcome and it is confidently anticipated that if the Overseas Mail is not sharp on time at Winnipeg tomorrow afternoon, it will reach Port William next morning on its regular schedule, and steam into Quebec two days later, prompt to the hour, instead of the 48 hours which it would otherwise require.

WERE SOUND ASLEEP IN THE CARRIAGE Magistrate is After the Houses Out the Road. Lavinia Quilty and Fred Smith, Two Drunks, Wore in a Very Bad State of Health.

There were four prisoners on the morning bench this morning who were interesting in a way to the spectators. One was Lavinia Quilty, who on numerous occasions has been sent to the same old charge of being drunk. After her night and part of the morning in the police station cell she was this morning naturally sick and had to leave the court room on a couple of occasions before being sentenced. She has a disipated look and has gone through enough to kill a dozen women. She was fined eight dollars or two months in the reformatory. Next to the woman on the bench was Fred Smith who was charged with being drunk on the same charge as the other. He was found drunk on the North West yesterday and the after effect of his drunk left him a wreck. While awaiting sentence he walked the court room floor, and claimed that he was wretchedly attired, his socks were wet and he was in a very bad state of health. The magistrate remanded him to jail and ordered that he be immediately sent to the reformatory. He was also charged with being drunk on the same charge as the other. He was found drunk on the same charge as the other. He was found drunk on the same charge as the other.

The river steamer Falman drifted into collision with the French mail steamer. The entire Chinese crew climbed aboard the French steamer and left Captain Thompson, who was injured, and the engineers to navigate the Falman to Shelter Bay where she was blown ashore. The Falman was on her way to visit some neighboring islands when the storm broke, and it is reported missing. His launch has been found floating bottom upwards. Many valuable steel lighters have been lost. Some of them were hurled ashore, channels will have to be dug to permit some of the vessels ashore to be refloated. The force of the wind and waves were such that some vessels were landed almost high and dry. The Japanese steamer Sada Maru rescued sixty-six natives and one English pilot as she was approaching Hong Kong. The English mail steamers Delhi and Poona escaped damage. The British cruiser Terrible entered port yesterday afternoon and reported fine weather up to the harbor. Sir Matthew Nathan, Governor of Hong Kong, and the authorities are doing everything possible to render assistance. Reports of fresh disasters are arriving every hour. Only a few Europeans are missing. No reports are on hand to show how the fishing fleets and the ships outside the harbor fared. Public opinion is incensed at the observatory for not reporting the approach of the typhoon. An inquiry has been demanded. For years past the observatory has been subjected to adverse comment, but on this occasion it is not believed to be blameable.

Harold Stevens, a newspaper man of Winnipeg, and a nephew of Isaac Stevens, of the I. C. R., arrived in the city today. This is Mr. Stevens' first visit to New Brunswick and in fact the first time that he has ever seen salt water. The city Football League executive will meet tonight at 8.30 in the Canada Permanent building to arrange for the ground for the football season. Other matters of importance will also come up.

CUSHING SIDE SHOW DECLARED CLOSED The Shore Privilege Action in Equity Dismissed. Capt. Partridge and Company Pay Costs—Judge Barker Agrees With Judge McLeod in This Case.

At chambers yesterday in the matter of the winding up of the Cushing Sulphite Fibre Company, Limited, Judge McLeod refused the application of Capt. Partridge for leave to proceed in the name of the company in a suit in equity brought by him (Partridge) and the company against George S. Cushing in respect of certain shore privileges near the pulp mill in delivering judgment the judge stated that after very careful consideration and after hearing the report of counsel for the liquidators in his opinion the suit could not succeed, and that the prosecution of it would be of no substantial benefit to the estate. He would refuse permission to use the name of the company in the suit. He also stated that he had gone fully into the matter with Judge Barker, judge in equity, who entirely concurred in the conclusion reached. In the equity court this morning Judge Barker delivered judgment on the application of Mr. Cushing to have the suit above referred to dismissed for want of prosecution. This application was made at the August sitting of the court, but was stood over in order to allow the plaintiff Partridge to apply to Judge McLeod for leave to use the company's name, which he did not do until the above stated. Judge Barker's judgment was that the suit should be dismissed with costs to be paid by the company. The suit was commenced about two years ago, but has never reached a hearing. By the above judgment the suit is ended and the company is to pay Mr. Cushing's taxed costs. D. Hanson, K. C., appeared for the liquidators of the company, and L. A. Curran, K. C. and Barnhill, Ewing & Curran, for Mr. Cushing, and Hanington, Teed & Hanington for Capt. Partridge.

GOT THE NEEDLE OUT AFTER 2 YEARS A Bread Poutice Succeeded Where Doctors Failed. Mrs. George Whittaker, Who Had Been Carrying a Piece of Steel in Her Hand for Two Years Has Got It Out at Last.

After endeavoring in vain for two years to extract a broken needle from her hand Mrs. George Whittaker was yesterday successful in her efforts. About two years ago Mrs. Whittaker, while sewing, broke a needle off in the fleshy part of her hand. She tried in every possible way to get it out, but not succeeding in doing so, and as the hand was bothering her a great deal she consulted a surgeon, who operated on the hand, but was unsuccessful in locating the needle. Mrs. Whittaker then went to the hospital and the X rays were tried. This, however, was as unsuccessful as the operation, and the lady was compelled to leave the hospital with the needle still in her possession. About a week ago Mrs. Whittaker felt severe pains in her right hand, and she remembered the needle episode. She applied a bread poultice, and after allowing it to remain there for a couple of days she took the poultice off and picked the inflamed part. Much to her surprise she struck the broken needle the first thing. The needle was removed.

DOVER, Oklahoma, Sept. 19.—At daylight today no bodies of the victims of yesterday's Rock Island train wreck had been recovered, but it was believed two persons had been drowned. Hank Littlefield, a circus man, and a negro carpenter. The injured are being cared for at X. Kingfisher, Okla. The passengers were nearly all residents of Oklahoma. The collapse of the bridge was due to high water in the Cimarron River. The river is falling as rapidly as it rose, and the bridge will be repaired and the submerged cars raised today.

GERMANY SEEMS TO BE LOOKING FOR TROUBLE Excursion Steamer Put into Portsmouth for Shelter And a Berlin Paper Learns She Was Ordered Away—Talk of Unfriendly Action Calling for a Protest.

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—In a despatch from Hamburg the correspondent of Neuste Nachrichten says:—"The Hamburg-American Line steamer Meteor, which is at present being used for excursions, was forced a few days ago to leave the harbor of Portsmouth, England, where she had put in because of stress of weather. The captain reports that she was ordered out of the harbor and obliged to take to sea during a storm. This incident has created indignation." In an editorial article on the subject the Neuste Nachrichten says:—"We treat the despatch with reserve, but should it be confirmed a sharp protest must follow. There is no doubt that the fortifications of the navy base may be kept from a observation of the experts, but in this case the tourists were driven in by dangerous weather. We take it that such a case of this kind is in the highest degree unfriendly." PORTSMOUTH, England.—The principal officers at the Plymouth dock yards said the Meteor did put into this harbor and remained less than an hour, adding that she was not ordered away, but left on her own account. PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Sept. 19.—The incident of the Meteor has been mentioned by the German newspaper. The naval authorities explain that the Meteor steamed into harbor and stopped herself to an admiralty buoy without asking permission. The authorities directed her to cast off and the Meteor soon left the harbor. But she was not ordered to do so.

THE OLD ALEXANDRA CHANGES HANDS AGAIN The Late Palm Garden Restaurant Bought by George Whittaker of the Royal Dairy Luncheon.

The Palm Garden restaurant, which has come into much prominence during the last few months, has been bought by public. It is now announced that this restaurant has been sold out and will soon open up under a new name. The restaurant was formerly known as the Alexandria cafe, but during the spring months was rented by Henry E. Walker, who retitled it and opened up under the name of the "Palm Garden Restaurant." For a few short months things ran smoothly. However, this was not to last long, as the proprietor was not doing the business to warrant his expenditures, and he tried to leave the country. He was brought back, however, and shortly afterwards put in jail for debt, where he remained for a couple of weeks. On getting out a few days ago the unlucky proprietor found that his wife had let the business in the restaurant go to pieces and had gone to the States with all the money in the cash box, which amounted to ninety dollars. This was the grand finale, and the restaurant closed. Today, however, the announcement is made that another chapter in the history of the restaurant has been opened, and that Geo. H. Whittaker of the Royal Dairy Luncheon, Mill street, has purchased the restaurant and will open it up next week under the name of the "Royal Dairy Luncheon." Mr. Whittaker claims that the restaurant is in a good location, and with proper management can be made to pay.
