ASHES AND SMOKE,
BUT NO ERUPTION.

NAPLES, Nov. 24—Preceded by loud detonations another portion of the crater of Mount Vesuvius on the side nearest Pompeii collapsed today and the volcano threw out ashes, cinders and smoke which rose like an immense umbrella. Professor Matteucci, director of the Royal Observatory on Mount Vesuvius, continues to declare there is no danger of an interruption.

ROME, Nov. 24—An explosion of a grenade today near the Church of St. Andrea Della Valle, which was made famous by Sordani in La Tosca, caused the spread of all kinds of conspired rumors.

ST. JOHN STAR.
ST. JOHN, N. B., NOV. 26, 1906.

GROWING APPLES.

A company which is now on the eve of organization for the purpose of growing and shipping fruit from New Brunswick owes its inception no doubt to the advertising which this province has of late been given as a fruit growing country. The newspapers of St.
John and of other provincial towns have repeatedly dwelt on the conditions found along the river, perfectly suited to the culture of apples, and these numerous paragraphs are beginning to have some effect. The Star has always claimed that if proper attention were given to this most profitable and most attractive branch of agriculture the St. John valley could be made a paradise compared with the far famed orchards of Annapolis would look like forsaken farms. We have a better climate, better land, and even the somewhat misdirected efforts of the past have shown that the apples grown here cannot be beaten in any respect by the best in Nova Scotia. Our farmers were years ago persuaded that the Duchess of Oldenburg suited their soil and climate. By experiments they found this to be true, and they fairly tumbled over each other in their efforts to plant trees of this variety. The result is that while we grow twenty-five thousand barrels in a season, a half of these are Duchess, thirty per cent. more are Fameuse, and all the Bald-wins, Bishop Pippins, Gravenstevens and Spys could be brought down river on one steamer. Attention has been given to two varieties, and the others, the best paying of all, have been neglected.
Yet we can raise just as good Gravenstevens as we can the Fameuse, or the Duchess, and the New Brunswick products in these two latter varieties are unequaled in America.

We can ship apples from St. John a month before the Nova Scotian crop comes to the market, that is, ship the varieties which we now grow, but the trouble has been that our farmers are content to fill barrels with shovels, paying no attention to the grading or method of packing, sending their fruit to St. John, and get fifty cents a barrel less than it is worth. They are satisfied to grasp at the small returns close at hand rather than to extend their trade and receive larger profits. There is no reason under the sun why New Brunswick apples should not command a fair portion of the British trade, even under such conditions of cultivation as we have at present. What is needed is some directed effort in the development of this branch of commerce, as the Star understands it, the company which it is proposed to form will primarily deal with the shipping. A packing house is to be operated and the fruit not suitable for export is to be sold locally or dried, thus establishing another small industry. It is the intention as well to go into the apple growing business and with this end in view tracts of land along the St. John valley will be secured and planted. While an undertaking of this nature will almost undoubtedly prove successful from the shareholders' point of view, it is one which may result in great benefit to the province as a whole in the development of this particular branch of farming.
Our people need to be taught, and they need to see the practical side of everything they do. The success of such a company as is proposed would in a very short time induce many farmers of this particular branch of farming.

ST. JOHN AND THE I. C. R.

The Moncton Transcript upbraids St.
John because the people of this city have exhibited a certain amount of interest in the recent discussion about the mail service. The Transcript holds the opinion that all the people here want the mail and passenger traffic, regardless of whether the Intercolonial suffers by the loss of this business.
Such an idea is scarcely well founded.
The Intercolonial has not indeed been directly brought into the matter and it is extremely doubtful if citizens generally would demand the mail service if they realized that a serious loss to the I. C. R. would result. The handling of the mails, and the passing through the port of a few score first class passengers are not highly profitable to the city.
A certain prestige attaches to the mail port, but the value of this is purely sentimental while the freight traffic is undoubtedly profitable. St. John would like to have it known, as is in fact the case, that mails can be handled through this port in just as good time as by way of Halifax, but for all the profit there would be to the city nobody cares a rap. The material benefits ac-cure solely to the steamship lines and to the railroads carrying the mails and passengers and while the C. P. R. has done much in the progress of St. John the Intercolonial has also brought great benefits, the people of New Brunswick are being given a train service the efficiency of which must depend in a large measure on the amount of business done, and it is thus to our own interests to do nothing which will lessen the prosperity of that road. We in St.

John are reaping the very evident benefits of the winter freight traffic, we desire it to be known that our port is equal to any in quickness of service for mails and for this reason are asking that a test trip be made, but when it comes to the point, if a decision must be made, we want all the profitable freight business that can be brought here and are content, seeing that the I. C. R. is not the sufferer, to let Halifax enjoy that sentimental advantage which the people of the sister city seem to attach to the holding of the mail contract.

ENOUGH FOR ALL

We murmur a lot when the skies are grey.
We chafe when the weather is mean; We only smile when the sun sends its ray.
And the path for our feet is green; We're selfish enough to want all the shine
And want all the roses that grow, And want all the summer with blossoms divine.
And want all the breezes that blow, We're bound in the grey and the gloom of the day, And we sometimes forget that the cheer
Is wanted a while by the people that smile.
In some other part of the sphere.

KING LEOPOLD'S VERSION.

Take up the white man's bludgeon And hammer out his brains Unless the big black rascal Consent to kill in chains.
Go out and catch his children And amputate their hands
If he is slow in doing What his white boss commands.

ABSENT-MINDED.

A professor, noted for his absent-mindedness, fell downstairs, and when at the bottom said, thoughtfully: "I wonder why I came downstairs." I cannot remember at all.

VARIABLE INDIAN VOTER.

"No party can safely count on the vote of the Indian," said John N.
Flower of Bartlesville, Ok., one of the oldest Indian traders in the west.
"Some time ago the Ojibwa Indians were called into council. The Democrats prepared a feast for them. They barbecued beef and fed the Indians well. And the Indians were for the Democrats. Then the Republicans called them into council. They barbecued beef and fed the Indians
Republicans. After it was all over the Indians met. One of them addressed the meeting.
"Democrat, good; feed Indian," he said. "Republican, good; feed Indian well."
Then he concluded: "Both good; Indian go home."
"And they went."

COULD STOP HIM TALKING.

Senator Tillman was recently talking in his usual vehement manner. The conversation threatened to be stormy.
A friend expostulated with the senator, saying it was "hardly a place for such a discussion."
"Please don't talk so much," said the warning voice.
It irritated Tillman.
"Talk!" he exclaimed. "I talk as much whenever and wherever I please.
I would like to see the man who can keep me from doing so."
"I can!" came a voice from the crowd.
Tillman turned and glared about him.
Then his eye caught the speaker. He pretended to quail. The laugh went round, and the critical situation was saved.
The man who had hurled the defiant can! was Dr. T. T. Moore, Till-man's lifetime dentist.

MINISTERING ANGELS.

Carrier pigeons as aids to a physician are reported from the North of America. The doctor has a scattered practice, and when on long roads he takes several pigeons with him. If his patients are scattered, he writes out immediately, he writes out a prescription, and by means of the birds forwards it to his surgery. Here an assistant gets the message, prepares the prescription and despatches the medicine. If after while he is called later in the day, he simply leaves a pigeon, with which he can be called, if necessary.

JUDGING BY ANALOGY.

"Do you think she will ever love me?"
"Sure! She loved me and she's loved Jack, and she's loved several others. Of course she will!"

DISSEMBLED GLEE!

Lawson-I hear that Watkins' mother-in-law died abroad.
Davson-Yes. Poor fellow!
Lawson-Poor fellow? Why do you say that?
Davson-Because, in all common decency, he has got to look mournful until the body gets here.

NOT TO BE A FATHER TO HIM.

"So you are anxious to become my son-in-law?"
"No, sir, you misjudge me. I am anxious to marry your daughter; if it were possible to do that without becoming your son-in-law I would gladly have it that way."

A FAST COLOR.

Miss Passay-The idea of her pretending that she thought my hair was grey.
Miss Knox-Yes, so silly of her.
Miss Passay-Wasn't it, though?
Miss Knox-Yes, just as if you'd buy grey hair.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION
IS DOING GOOD WORK

The Secretary Replies to Statements Made by C. J. Milligan

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 26.
To the Editor of the Star:— Dear Sir:—A statement was recently made by Mr. C. J. Milligan in the columns of the Star, to the effect that "at one time the St. John Tourist Association was doing good work, but today that it is an absolute failure; also that in their booklet (Tourist Association) the great facilities here are not mentioned."

These remarks were called forth under a discussion on the 75.00 Club scheme. It is a matter for regret that such an erroneous idea regarding the work of the New Brunswick Tourist Association should be held by anyone, and that it should be given the public.

In the first place, the Tourist Association is not simply a St. John Association, but a provincial association, called the New Brunswick Tourist Association, the main object of which is to attract tourists, sportsmen, and holiday seekers generally to our city and province, and so we have a well devised plan of advertising in such magazines that prove to bring good returns, in addition to which a vast amount of literature is annually circulated.

We also have a large number of lantern slides that are being utilized by different lectures in the United States and Great Britain.

This winter this association will have its own representative at Sportsmen's Shows in New York and Boston.
In 1906 Provincial Booklet, a chapter under the heading "Chances for Investment," presents the exceptional advantages of St. John as a manufacturing centre, both as regards to the cheapness with which raw materials can be gathered from all parts of the world, our timber resources, railroads and steamship facilities, factory sites, etc., showing St. John to be an ideal city in all respects for the location of such industries.

Our annual meeting will be held the second week in January, of which due notice will be given in the press, and to which we cordially invite any and all who can further the work, or who desire to better understand the work of the association.

The executive is composed of the following, some of which were members of the original committee: Mr.
T. H. Bullock, Mr. W. F. Hatheway, Mr. W. S. Fisher, Mr. A. O. Skinner, Mr. O. H. Warfield, Mr. W. B. Baymond, Mr. D. J. McLaughlin, Mr. A.
C. Currie, Mr. P. B. Ellis, Mr. W. B.
Hosmer, Mr. C. H. Campbell, Colonel Markham, Mr. D. W. McCormick, Mr.
R. S. Orchard, Mr. W. G. Lee, Mr. E.
A. Scholonsky, Mr. R. T. Hayes, Mr. S.
A. Smith, Mr. H. Albright.

The past year has been the most successful in the history of the New Brunswick Tourist Association.
Respectfully,
A. PAULINE SCOVILL,
Secretary.

NORWAY IS SAFE FROM ALL FOREIGN INVASION

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 24—An international compact guaranteeing the inviolability of Norway against territorial aggression by any power whatever, and giving the kingdom a statute similar to Belgium will be inscribed on the records of diplomacy. On account of its extended position, the possession of valuable deep water harbors on the Atlantic and the agreement with Sweden against fortification in the neighborhood of the frontier, Norway is in a peculiarly exposed position and the efforts of Norse diplomacy have been directed towards making the danger of being attacked very small.
With regard to the action of Norway in approaching the powers for the purpose of securing these concessions it can be stated that Russia, the power most directly concerned, had no objection to the conclusion of such a convention.

SEVEN WERE INJURED
IN SATURDAY RACING

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 24—Seven persons were injured, two seriously today, at the automobile races for the Quaker City Club Cup at Point Breeze, in the southern section of this city. The injured were all spectators and the most severely hurt are F.
H. Hubbs and P. P. Furler, both of Philadelphia, who sustained fractures of the legs.

During a fifty mile race the steering gear of a sixty horse-power car became disarranged and the machine crashed behind a rail behind which a large number of spectators were standing. Seven persons were caught by the on-rushing automobile and knocked to the ground. The machine was driven by Phil Kirk, who was accompanied by Edward Barrett, a machinist both of this city. They were thrown from the machine and were only slightly hurt.

WEDDING CELEBRATION
ENDED IN MURDER

CENTRAL FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 24.— In a quarrel which started at a wedding celebration tonight at the home of Wm. Volkmar on Cross street, Volkmar was fatally stabbed. Two of his guests, John Silva and Frank Koy-ink, who are said to have engaged in an altercation with Volkmar, disappeared after the stabbing and had not been found by the police late tonight. The stabbing occurred on the sidewalk in front of Volkmar's home, and in the presence of a large party of the wedding guests, none of whom said to have realized that there was a serious altercation until Volkmar fell mortally wounded, with blood flowing from a silted wound in his neck.
Volkmar was twenty-four years old and married. He was a weaver and the most of his guests was a Pole employed in a cotton mill.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 25.—All the available fire apparatus in the centre of the city was called to the Mercy Hospital tonight by an alarm from the private box of that institution. The fire was insignificant, being in the Magee pathological building, which is set apart from the main buildings, where are located the wards.

LIBERAL
Convention Called

To the Liberals of New Brunswick: It is my desire to meet the Liberals of New Brunswick in convention.
Nearly three years have elapsed since the last general meeting; it is also the judgment of many friends that such a gathering should take place for the purpose of perfecting party organization in all the counties of the Province.
To that end, I would invite all Liberals who can make it convenient to do so to attend at Berryman's Hall, in the City of St. John, on Thursday evening, 27th December next, at 7.30 o'clock.

This invitation is extended to all Liberals in New Brunswick who are interested in the success of the party and the good government of the country; but I would especially ask the Liberal Associations and Liberal Clubs of the various counties throughout the Province to select delegates, who shall be authorized to represent them at the convention.

There are many matters of importance to be considered, and it is therefore my earnest wish to have at the convention as many as possible of those who have a real interest in the advancement of Liberalism.

Thursday evening will be devoted to the selection of a Nominating Committee and the arranging of preliminaries. It is possible that an opportunity will be offered for short addresses from representatives of the different counties.

The convention will re-assemble on Friday at 10 o'clock in the forenoon for the transaction of the real business of the gathering. The day will be given up wholly to the work of organization, which, it is hoped will be completed in time to permit the delegates to return to their homes in the evenings.
