

Social Notes of the Week

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Aug. 7.—Mr. Henry R. Bower of Boston is spending his vacation with his parents at "Cedar Croft."

Miss Susie Turner who has spent some time in town a guest at Miss Cathcart's, returned to St. John on Monday.

Miss Margaret Attridge of Houlton was the week-end guest of Mrs. Sarah Simpson.

Mr. George Hivon left on Monday night for his home in Gramby, Que.

Miss Alexie Horne of St. John is spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horne.

Miss Martha Stinson of Boston is spending a month with her sister Mrs. Thomas Richardson.

The Misses Sara and Kate Hunt arrived from Boston on Saturday and are occupying their cottage for the month of August.

Dr. Frank O'Neill and Mrs. O'Neill of New York are the guests of the Misses O'Neill.

A party of young people chaperoned by Mrs. Sumner Mallock, are enjoying an outing at L'Amour-du-Bois, Chamcook Lake. Among the number are Misses Mary Vose, Lubeck, Olive Mitchell, Campbell, Mattie and Bessie Mallock, Wylie Sheehan, Rae Howe, and Messes James Rutledge, Sydney, C. B. David, McOrmack, Woodstock, George Hivon.

At a special meeting of the town council for the town of St. Andrews on Thursday evening last the council unanimously voted an appropriation of $1,000 for the purchase of a machine gun. Twenty citizens by a contribution of $50 each, provided a fund for a second gun and by a collection among the citizens and by a committee of the Women's Canadian Club more than enough has been raised for the purchase of a third gun.

Mr. Harrison Wade is visiting friends in St. Stephen.

Mrs. Marshall Stinson entertained a number of children very delightfully on Thursday afternoon at a birthday party in honor of her little granddaughter Miss Helen Devendon of Chicago. Among the little girls were Mary O'Neill, Dorothy and Ruth Nesbitt, Margaret Harris, Kathleen Clark, Marjorie Coakley and Josephine Glen.

Bishop LeBlanc of St. John administered the rite of confirmation to 35 candidates, twelve of whom came from Campbellton, on Wednesday morning in the church of St. Andrew.

Rev. Fr. Howard of St. John, Rev. Fr. Doyle of Milltown and Rev. Fr. Holland of St. George assisted at the ceremony.

Rev. James Kerr and Mrs. Kerr of Philadelphia have been recent guests of Mrs. M. J. Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Carmichael and little son Donald, of St. John, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cockburn.

All the places of worship were closed for the day and services held in all the churches in the morning of the anniversary celebration of the war. In the afternoon a mass meeting was held in the Court House grounds, Mayor Greenlaw presiding. The united church choir of the town assisted by the school children rendered a number of patriotic selections. Stirling and accord addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Gordon of Queens University, Toronto; Mr. D. Forgan, Chicago, and Mr. W. H. Northrup, M. P. for Ontario.

Mr. Stephen Shaughnessy received word on Monday of the death of his niece Mrs. Henry Howard of Dorchester, Mass., who passed away after an illness of six weeks.

Misses Macken, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Walter Foster, on Tuesday were Mrs. Lewis Barker, Mr. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather.

For the week-end, Mrs. J. F. Fraser.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Aug. 6.—Hostesses at this week's Red Cross tea on Tuesday were Mrs. Andrew Blair, Miss Purdy and Misses MacKee, Mrs. W. S. Allison, assisted Mrs. Blair in pouring.

Mr. W. R. Turnbull and his guest, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, who have been cruising in Mr. Turnbull's yacht, "Katrina," have returned home.

Wednesday, the first anniversary of the declaration of war by England against Germany, was observed quietly here. Two services of intercession were held in St. Paul's Church, congregations at both being large. A special "British Hymn" printed on cards was sung, besides other appropriate selections. At the early morning service there was "Communion," after the intercessions for the success of Britain and our Allies. Rev. Canon Daniel was present at both services.

In the first assisted by Rev. W. R. Hibbard and in the second by Rev. Percy Colthurst. Mr. Daniel also held service at Gondola Point in the afternoon and at Renforth at 8 p. m.

After a month pleasantly spent at their salmon fishing camp, Opsalquitch, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson with Miss Hope, have returned home just in time for Mr. Robertson to present the first "field kitchen" to our own New Brunswick 26th Battalion.

For patriotic purposes, the Fair Vale Outing Association, are to hold a basket social, and entertainment on Miss Gard's grounds, near Fair Vale station, on Wednesday evening next.

Ten articles, donated by friends, are to be raffled, and those buying a 25 cent ticket, have ten chances for a prize. Ice cream and candy on sale. Music and other attractions.

Miss Mary Armstrong, who has been visiting friends in Halifax, returned home on Saturday.

On Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at an enjoyable sewing party, when among those present were Mrs. Andrew Blair and her sister, Miss Cameron, of Boston, Mrs. Hibbard and her sister, Miss Brock, of Montreal, Miss Margaret Fairweather and her guest, Miss Faive, of Fredericton, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of Brookline, N. Y., Miss Alice Fairweather, Mrs. Charles Taylor, New York, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Denville, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Celia Armstrong and others.

Mrs. John H. Thomson had as guests on Monday, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. John Mackee and Mrs. Andrew Blair. The party motored to Hampden and had dinner at the Wayside Inn.

For sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. H. F. Puddington had on Monday, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Fred Peters.

After a delightful trip to Grand Falls, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Houlton, and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, returned home in their automobile a few days ago.

Mrs. David P. Chisholm, of St. John, was guest of Senator and Mrs. Denville, at "The Willows" over the week-end.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Arthur de Forest and Mrs. Edna Barnes leave to spend a week at Mrs. de Forest's camp, Loch Lomond, chaperoning six girls, Misses Hazel de Forest, Edith and Doris Barnes, Gladys Gibson, Evelyn Currie, Marjorie Robinson.

Hon. William Pugsley and Miss McDonald were a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley (Montreal), at their summer home here.

Renforth Red Cross are to hold the second of a series of patriotic entertainments at the club house, on Wednesday evening next. Bridge and other attractions are offered. It is unfortunate that this, and the Fair Vale entertainment should have fallen on the same night, but both will be popular.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank was among relatives here on Sunday, coming from St. John by motor-cycle. His mother, Mrs. A. O. Crookshank and her son, Mr. Harold O. Crookshank, of Halifax are at Ormeston for a few weeks.

The ladies in charge of this week's tennis tea, on Saturday, are Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Allan Daniel, Misses Macken, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Walter Foster, on Tuesday were Mrs. Lewis Barker, Mr. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather.

For the week-end, Mrs. J. F. Fraser.

St. John, was guest of Mrs. J. B. and Miss Magee.

Miss Mary Barnes is visiting Miss Eileen Morrison at Westfield.

For their guests, Mrs. and Miss Taylor, of Fredericton, the Misses Fairweather, on Friday entertained at sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson, Mrs. D. D. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Davidson and Mrs. Denville.

Miss Royce Carter, Miss Pauline Jenkins and Miss Isabel Millidge are enjoying a trip in Nova Scotia, visiting at several places.

Mrs. and Miss Read, of Ottawa, spent Wednesday here with Mrs. J. F. Robertson, on their way to visit friends at Annapolis, N. S.

Mrs. David D. Robertson, has returned home, from Halifax, where she has been guest of her daughter, Mrs. George E. Nichol and Mr. Nichol.

On Monday Mr. Murray, of St. Stephen, who is to be the new principal at the public school, paid a visit to Rothsay.

At their camp at Gondola Point, on Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Bell entertained Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Allison, Misses Chambers, Miss Davidson and Miss Brock.

Instead of a garden tea, as had been talked of to provide a "Riverside" bed in Dr. MacLaren's hospital, France, Mrs. Eustace Barnes, and Mrs. Chas. Lordley, called on the residents between Rothsay and Renforth, and in a few hours collected $107. Saturday morning also Monday afternoon, was given to this effort which proved to be a real pleasure, being so well received everywhere. The money has been given to Dr. MacLaren's work for a bed and hospital supplies.

On Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at an enjoyable sewing party, when among those present were Mrs. Andrew Blair and her sister, Miss Cameron, of Boston, Mrs. Hibbard and her sister, Miss Brock, of Montreal, Miss Margaret Fairweather and her guest, Miss Faive, of Fredericton, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of Brookline, N. Y., Miss Alice Fairweather, Mrs. Charles Taylor, New York, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Denville, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Celia Armstrong and others.

Mrs. John H. Thomson had as guests on Monday, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. John Mackee and Mrs. Andrew Blair. The party motored to Hampden and had dinner at the Wayside Inn.

For sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. H. F. Puddington had on Monday, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Fred Peters.

After a delightful trip to Grand Falls, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Houlton, and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, returned home in their automobile a few days ago.

Mrs. David P. Chisholm, of St. John, was guest of Senator and Mrs. Denville, at "The Willows" over the week-end.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Arthur de Forest and Mrs. Edna Barnes leave to spend a week at Mrs. de Forest's camp, Loch Lomond, chaperoning six girls, Misses Hazel de Forest, Edith and Doris Barnes, Gladys Gibson, Evelyn Currie, Marjorie Robinson.

Hon. William Pugsley and Miss McDonald were a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley (Montreal), at their summer home here.

Renforth Red Cross are to hold the second of a series of patriotic entertainments at the club house, on Wednesday evening next. Bridge and other attractions are offered. It is unfortunate that this, and the Fair Vale entertainment should have fallen on the same night, but both will be popular.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank was among relatives here on Sunday, coming from St. John by motor-cycle. His mother, Mrs. A. O. Crookshank and her son, Mr. Harold O. Crookshank, of Halifax are at Ormeston for a few weeks.

The ladies in charge of this week's tennis tea, on Saturday, are Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Allan Daniel, Misses Macken, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Walter Foster, on Tuesday were Mrs. Lewis Barker, Mr. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather.

For the week-end, Mrs. J. F. Fraser.

St. John, was guest of Mrs. J. B. and Miss Magee.

Miss Mary Barnes is visiting Miss Eileen Morrison at Westfield.

For their guests, Mrs. and Miss Taylor, of Fredericton, the Misses Fairweather, on Friday entertained at sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson, Mrs. D. D. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Davidson and Mrs. Denville.

Miss Royce Carter, Miss Pauline Jenkins and Miss Isabel Millidge are enjoying a trip in Nova Scotia, visiting at several places.

Mrs. and Miss Read, of Ottawa, spent Wednesday here with Mrs. J. F. Robertson, on their way to visit friends at Annapolis, N. S.

Mrs. David D. Robertson, has returned home, from Halifax, where she has been guest of her daughter, Mrs. George E. Nichol and Mr. Nichol.

On Monday Mr. Murray, of St. Stephen, who is to be the new principal at the public school, paid a visit to Rothsay.

At their camp at Gondola Point, on Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Bell entertained Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Allison, Misses Chambers, Miss Davidson and Miss Brock.

Instead of a garden tea, as had been talked of to provide a "Riverside" bed in Dr. MacLaren's hospital, France, Mrs. Eustace Barnes, and Mrs. Chas. Lordley, called on the residents between Rothsay and Renforth, and in a few hours collected $107. Saturday morning also Monday afternoon, was given to this effort which proved to be a real pleasure, being so well received everywhere. The money has been given to Dr. MacLaren's work for a bed and hospital supplies.

On Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at an enjoyable sewing party, when among those present were Mrs. Andrew Blair and her sister, Miss Cameron, of Boston, Mrs. Hibbard and her sister, Miss Brock, of Montreal, Miss Margaret Fairweather and her guest, Miss Faive, of Fredericton, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of Brookline, N. Y., Miss Alice Fairweather, Mrs. Charles Taylor, New York, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Denville, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Celia Armstrong and others.

Mrs. John H. Thomson had as guests on Monday, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. John Mackee and Mrs. Andrew Blair. The party motored to Hampden and had dinner at the Wayside Inn.

For sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. H. F. Puddington had on Monday, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Fred Peters.

After a delightful trip to Grand Falls, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Houlton, and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, returned home in their automobile a few days ago.

Mrs. David P. Chisholm, of St. John, was guest of Senator and Mrs. Denville, at "The Willows" over the week-end.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Arthur de Forest and Mrs. Edna Barnes leave to spend a week at Mrs. de Forest's camp, Loch Lomond, chaperoning six girls, Misses Hazel de Forest, Edith and Doris Barnes, Gladys Gibson, Evelyn Currie, Marjorie Robinson.

Hon. William Pugsley and Miss McDonald were a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley (Montreal), at their summer home here.

Renforth Red Cross are to hold the second of a series of patriotic entertainments at the club house, on Wednesday evening next. Bridge and other attractions are offered. It is unfortunate that this, and the Fair Vale entertainment should have fallen on the same night, but both will be popular.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank was among relatives here on Sunday, coming from St. John by motor-cycle. His mother, Mrs. A. O. Crookshank and her son, Mr. Harold O. Crookshank, of Halifax are at Ormeston for a few weeks.

The ladies in charge of this week's tennis tea, on Saturday, are Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Allan Daniel, Misses Macken, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Walter Foster, on Tuesday were Mrs. Lewis Barker, Mr. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather.

For the week-end, Mrs. J. F. Fraser.

St. John, was guest of Mrs. J. B. and Miss Magee.

Miss Mary Barnes is visiting Miss Eileen Morrison at Westfield.

For their guests, Mrs. and Miss Taylor, of Fredericton, the Misses Fairweather, on Friday entertained at sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson, Mrs. D. D. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Davidson and Mrs. Denville.

Miss Royce Carter, Miss Pauline Jenkins and Miss Isabel Millidge are enjoying a trip in Nova Scotia, visiting at several places.

Mrs. and Miss Read, of Ottawa, spent Wednesday here with Mrs. J. F. Robertson, on their way to visit friends at Annapolis, N. S.

Mrs. David D. Robertson, has returned home, from Halifax, where she has been guest of her daughter, Mrs. George E. Nichol and Mr. Nichol.

On Monday Mr. Murray, of St. Stephen, who is to be the new principal at the public school, paid a visit to Rothsay.

At their camp at Gondola Point, on Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Bell entertained Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Allison, Misses Chambers, Miss Davidson and Miss Brock.

Instead of a garden tea, as had been talked of to provide a "Riverside" bed in Dr. MacLaren's hospital, France, Mrs. Eustace Barnes, and Mrs. Chas. Lordley, called on the residents between Rothsay and Renforth, and in a few hours collected $107. Saturday morning also Monday afternoon, was given to this effort which proved to be a real pleasure, being so well received everywhere. The money has been given to Dr. MacLaren's work for a bed and hospital supplies.

On Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at an enjoyable sewing party, when among those present were Mrs. Andrew Blair and her sister, Miss Cameron, of Boston, Mrs. Hibbard and her sister, Miss Brock, of Montreal, Miss Margaret Fairweather and her guest, Miss Faive, of Fredericton, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of Brookline, N. Y., Miss Alice Fairweather, Mrs. Charles Taylor, New York, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Denville, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Celia Armstrong and others.

Mrs. John H. Thomson had as guests on Monday, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. John Mackee and Mrs. Andrew Blair. The party motored to Hampden and had dinner at the Wayside Inn.

For sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. H. F. Puddington had on Monday, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Fred Peters.

After a delightful trip to Grand Falls, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Houlton, and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, returned home in their automobile a few days ago.

Mrs. David P. Chisholm, of St. John, was guest of Senator and Mrs. Denville, at "The Willows" over the week-end.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Arthur de Forest and Mrs. Edna Barnes leave to spend a week at Mrs. de Forest's camp, Loch Lomond, chaperoning six girls, Misses Hazel de Forest, Edith and Doris Barnes, Gladys Gibson, Evelyn Currie, Marjorie Robinson.

Hon. William Pugsley and Miss McDonald were a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley (Montreal), at their summer home here.

Renforth Red Cross are to hold the second of a series of patriotic entertainments at the club house, on Wednesday evening next. Bridge and other attractions are offered. It is unfortunate that this, and the Fair Vale entertainment should have fallen on the same night, but both will be popular.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank was among relatives here on Sunday, coming from St. John by motor-cycle. His mother, Mrs. A. O. Crookshank and her son, Mr. Harold O. Crookshank, of Halifax are at Ormeston for a few weeks.

The ladies in charge of this week's tennis tea, on Saturday, are Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Allan Daniel, Misses Macken, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Walter Foster, on Tuesday were Mrs. Lewis Barker, Mr. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather.

For the week-end, Mrs. J. F. Fraser.

St. John, was guest of Mrs. J. B. and Miss Magee.

Miss Mary Barnes is visiting Miss Eileen Morrison at Westfield.

For their guests, Mrs. and Miss Taylor, of Fredericton, the Misses Fairweather, on Friday entertained at sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson, Mrs. D. D. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Davidson and Mrs. Denville.

Miss Royce Carter, Miss Pauline Jenkins and Miss Isabel Millidge are enjoying a trip in Nova Scotia, visiting at several places.

Mrs. and Miss Read, of Ottawa, spent Wednesday here with Mrs. J. F. Robertson, on their way to visit friends at Annapolis, N. S.

Mrs. David D. Robertson, has returned home, from Halifax, where she has been guest of her daughter, Mrs. George E. Nichol and Mr. Nichol.

On Monday Mr. Murray, of St. Stephen, who is to be the new principal at the public school, paid a visit to Rothsay.

At their camp at Gondola Point, on Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Bell entertained Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Allison, Misses Chambers, Miss Davidson and Miss Brock.

Instead of a garden tea, as had been talked of to provide a "Riverside" bed in Dr. MacLaren's hospital, France, Mrs. Eustace Barnes, and Mrs. Chas. Lordley, called on the residents between Rothsay and Renforth, and in a few hours collected $107. Saturday morning also Monday afternoon, was given to this effort which proved to be a real pleasure, being so well received everywhere. The money has been given to Dr. MacLaren's work for a bed and hospital supplies.

On Thursday, Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at an enjoyable sewing party, when among those present were Mrs. Andrew Blair and her sister, Miss Cameron, of Boston, Mrs. Hibbard and her sister, Miss Brock, of Montreal, Miss Margaret Fairweather and her guest, Miss Faive, of Fredericton, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of Brookline, N. Y., Miss Alice Fairweather, Mrs. Charles Taylor, New York, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Denville, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Celia Armstrong and others.

Mrs. John H. Thomson had as guests on Monday, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. John Mackee and Mrs. Andrew Blair. The party motored to Hampden and had dinner at the Wayside Inn.

For sewing and afternoon tea, Mrs. H. F. Puddington had on Monday, Mrs. and Miss Bell, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Fred Peters.

After a delightful trip to Grand Falls, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Houlton, and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, returned home in their automobile a few days ago.

Mrs. David P. Chisholm, of St. John, was guest of Senator and Mrs. Denville, at "The Willows" over the week-end.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Arthur de Forest and Mrs. Edna Barnes leave to spend a week at Mrs. de Forest's camp, Loch Lomond, chaperoning six girls, Misses Hazel de Forest, Edith and Doris Barnes, Gladys Gibson, Evelyn Currie, Marjorie Robinson.

Hon. William Pugsley and Miss McDonald were a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley (Montreal), at their summer home here.

Renforth Red Cross are to hold the second of a series of patriotic entertainments at the club house, on Wednesday evening next. Bridge and other attractions are offered. It is unfortunate that this, and the Fair Vale entertainment should have fallen on the same night, but both will be popular.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank was among relatives here on Sunday, coming from St. John by motor-cycle. His mother, Mrs. A. O. Crookshank and her son, Mr. Harold O. Crookshank, of Halifax are at Ormeston for a few weeks.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Aug. 6.—The beautiful grounds of Dr. W. D. Rankine gave the appearance of fairyland on Saturday evening, when the W. G. S. of Kings Daughters held an open air bazaar. Mrs. Rankine, through whose untiring efforts the affair was such a success, is to be congratulated. The decorations consisting of large flags, small flags, an unlimited supply of hanging, lovely numberless red, white and blue electric lights were strung everywhere, and numerous Chinese lanterns, together with the prettily decorated booths presented a most charming effect. Unfortunately a heavy shower came up during the evening which put an end to the evening's enjoyment. One of the pleasant features was the bright and inspiring music by the High School Orchestra. The proceeds was for patriotic purposes.

Robert Hull, son of Mrs. Robert Hull was among the latest enlistments for the 65th Battalion. He is now at Valcartier. This is Mrs. Hull's fourth son to enlist since the war.

Rev. F. L. Orchard and Mrs. Orchard are visiting friends in Wolfville.

Mrs. S. Ascott and daughter Gladys, London, Ont., are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Wallace Gibson, Connell street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Perley Hartley are enjoying a week's outing at Skiff Lake.

Dr. T. L. Bourque, M. L. A., Kent county, was a recent guest of Dr. R. G. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. A. D. Holbyke and Mrs. Charles J. Jones served at the Golf Club House on Saturday afternoon.

Thane M. Jones, Miss Caroline Munro, Miss Lucy Jarvis and Miss Mary Jarvis assisted in serving. Clock golf was played after tea, Miss Mary D. Clark and Mrs. Charles J. Jones having the lowest scores.

Vernon Holbyke is spending a few weeks with friends in Kingsclear.

Mrs. George W. Gibson and Miss Margaret Gibson are visiting friends in Bridgewater, Me.

Mr. Jack Sylvester, of Malden, Mass., with his wife and son Robert, spent last week at Skiff Lake.

Mrs. W. D. Rankine leaves on Thursday for New York, where she will sail for England to visit her son, Lieut. Rankine.

Miss Mary Wright left, on Monday to join a party in St. John for a motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Balmann spent the week-end at Skiff Lake, with Mr. George E. Balmann and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester O. MacDonald are spending a week at Skiff Lake.

Miss Annie Sprague, assistant principal Ladies' College, Sackville, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Sprague.

Mrs. T. A. Rankine and Mrs. Allison P. Allingham, of St. John, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Allingham.

Miss Cowie, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. W. Jarvis, left for her home in Moncton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and family left Saturday for Deer Island, where they will camp for three weeks.

Mr. Stewart Bailey, of the Royal Bank staff at Fredericton, arrived here on Monday, and will spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Bailey.

Miss Charlotte Allincham, who has been spending her holidays with her parents here, returned to Portland, Me., on Monday.

Miss Alice Boyer arrived home on Thursday evening, after a pleasant visit spent with friends in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chase, who have been spending the past three weeks with relatives here, left for their home in Salem, Mass. on Friday morning. Master Roland will spend two months with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Hayden, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevens, left on Monday by Mr. Hayden's auto for Elgin, Albert county, and Moncton on their way to Charlottetown, P. E. I.,