New York, Oct. 6.—Dazzled by the most brilliant pitching they had been forced to contend with this year, and by a youngster's perfect command of the craft and cunning of a veteran and the power of a super-slugger, buffeted by the most varied assortment of curves, straight-aways, slips and fast balls, which the Yanks forced down their throats. And now world's series history challenges the Giants to perform a feat which has yet to be recorded in the baseball classic. Never has a club, which won the first two games, been defeated for the title.

Stolen bases, Ruth (2) Meusel. Double plays, Frisch to Rawlings, McNally to Ward to Pipp—Rawlings to Kelly to Smith. Bases on balls, off Hoyt 7, off Nehf 7. Struck out by Hoyt 6. Left on bases, Yankees 6, Giants 6.

Umpires: Moriarty, behind plate, Quigley at first, Chill at second and Rigler at third.

Attendance, 35,000.

Vengeful Young Hurler.

It was a vengeful, virulent and virile young right hander whom the Giants had to face today—a youth who, for five years, has nursed a grievance and now found the great opportunity to even an old score.

Back in 1916 Hoyt, a lad just out of Erasmus Hall High School of Brooklyn, came to the Giants for trial. Day after day he labored at the Polo Grounds trying with might and main to persuade John McGraw that he was entitled to a place on the Giants' bench, and consideration as a probable regular of the future. Day after day Hoyt worked hard to escape a sentence to the minors, but at last it came. Hoyt was told to go to Memphis and after some wrangling he went. And when the youngster left for South he found that the Giants had cut him adrift. He went with out the string which major clubs usually attach to recruits who are sent down for more experience.

ARTICLE 18 AGAIN BEFORE ASSEMBLY

Shadow of Woodrow Wilson Once More Falls Over Deliberations of League.

Geneva, Oct. 6.—The shadow of Woodrow Wilson has once more fallen over the League of Nations Assembly in its consideration of article eighteen, which the former American President had inserted in the League covenant, with the conviction that it would put an end to secret international treaties. The article provides no treaty shall be binding until it has been registered with the League for publication. The Commission's jurist has now reported that this article conflicts with certain State rights, since the constitutions of some nations provide that any treaty shall become effective from the moment of signing, and others that treaties take effect on ratification. The Assembly shelves the problem by postponing action pending the amending of article on motion of Arthur Balfour until 1922. In the meantime the article will remain technically in effect, requiring registration of treaties within three months.

Fought For Recognition.

And then young Hoyt began the construction of that revenge which was his today. He fought for recognition in the minor leagues and won it. He fought his way back into the major leagues as a member of the Red Sox, but again came discouragement. Hoyt was then ill and was forced to undergo an operation. The Boston Club let him slip into the position of a fifth-tier pitcher almost lost. The outlook was dark but still this game led to a revival of his career by Dame Fortune. In time came a trade and Hoyt became a member of the Yankees. And today came the supreme moment for the Hoyt whom McGraw had sent away to Memphis in 1916. Today it was New York's very own—the only native of the Metropolis among the Yankees who debuted in the classic. Today this son of Flatbush said proud of a mighty Matly of 1905—a flank and a batter rolled into one—and Ed Beuback of days gone by. Today, in allowing only two hits, Hoyt tied a World's series record which Beuback, pitching for the greatest Old Cub machine, set against a Detroit Club, managed by Hingey Jennings fourteen years ago.

The Fellow Who Pays The Bills Must Be Boss

Wife Number Three Tells Tale of Woe Because Hubby Was Unbearable.

New York, Oct. 6.—"He who pays bills must be boss," declared William P. Vandewater, wealthy and socially prominent, according to his wife who is suing for separation. Defendant has two wives before and third said he constantly belittled her. Besides: "I could not keep up with Vandewater's ideas of life. His idea of a good time was to make me go with him every afternoon to a number of dances about four o'clock, and keep dancing until I was tagged out. I was a mere slave to him.

Conservatives of Carleton-Victoria To Meet October 20th

Will Gather at Woodstock to Choose a Candidate Representative of All People.

Special to The Standard.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 6.—A convention of those in favor of the present Government and the up-building of Canadian industries in preference to those of other countries, will be held at the Vogue Theatre, Woodstock, N. B., at 7 p. m. on Thursday, October 14, for the purpose of selecting a candidate to contest Carleton-Victoria in the coming election. A full attendance from every parish in the constituency is invited and a special invitation is extended to women voters to be present. The members of the constituency are exceptionally welcome to assist in selecting a candidate who will present all classes in the constituency. Special train accommodation will be arranged for those attending the convention. Delegates from Victoria come here today, report the great credit which the Government has accorded, wherever they may be, in the past century.

Arbuckle Splits With His Attorney

Refuses to Pay Fee of $50,000 Required for Further Participation in the Case.

(United Press)

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—Roscoe Arbuckle is not so apprehensive about the outcome of his trial on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappo, film actress, that he is willing to pay his Chief Attorney $50,000. It was learned here Thursday, Frank Dominguez, who defended Arbuckle at the murder hearing, is said to have demanded $25,000 for further participation in the case. Arbuckle only gave $5,000 according to reports and he figured that is all the lawyer is worth. Dominguez has left the case. The

GOVERNMENT MINISTERS NOW DOWN TO WORK

With the Premier's Manifesto Before the Country Cabinet Members Are Off to Battle.

COUNTRY SWINGING TOWARD GOVERNMENT

Old Antagonism to Free Trade Welling up More Determinedly Than in 1911.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—With parliament dissolved and Premier Meighen's manifesto before the country, Government headquarters here are moving swiftly toward concentrating the maximum of energy into the campaign. Cabinet Ministers are preparing for their constituencies, speakers are being marshalled for platform work, a campaign of educational publicity has been launched and the entire electrifying machinery of the party given an increased momentum.

From all the provinces today came telegrams congratulating the Prime Minister on his manifesto, and expressing confidence in the country, Government headquarters here are moving swiftly toward concentrating the maximum of energy into the campaign. Cabinet Ministers are preparing for their constituencies, speakers are being marshalled for platform work, a campaign of educational publicity has been launched and the entire electrifying machinery of the party given an increased momentum.

FREE TRADE IN IMPLEMENTS MEANS SHIFTING OF MANUFACTURE OF WEST CANADA IMPLEMENTS TO STATES

Mr. Thomas Findley, President of the Massey-Harris Company, in a public statement which he gave to the press on September 7, said:—

"My opinion is that free trade in implements means the inevitable shifting of the manufacture of Western Canadian implements from Ontario and Quebec to the Western Middle States. If there is to be neither tariff nor sentimental preference to offset the geographical handicap, we shall be forced sooner or later to establish ourselves on equal terms with our competitors. So far as my company is concerned, we are not going to lose our Western Canadian trade, even if it means that we have to build another factory in the Western States, therefore, our workmen, other industries which furnish us with materials, and those generally dependent upon them, are much more vitally interested in this matter than we are."

INFLAMMATORY CAMPAIGN BY KING LIBERALS

Archambault Makes Rank Statement in Addressing French-Canadians.

CRERAR'S SPEECH OF LITTLE ACCOUNT

Opening the Campaign at Brandon He Had Little to Say of Importance.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa Oct. 6.—Further evidence of the inflammatory campaign which the King Liberals are carrying on in Quebec is found in a remarkable speech delivered by Joseph Archambault, member for Chambly-Verchères in Quebec, on Wednesday. Mr. Archambault was attacking Mr. Meighen for his stand at the imperial conference this summer, and the Press reports him as saying: "What is the position Mr. Meighen took there? We do not know, but we believe that Mr. Meighen engaged Canada to take part in a war between England and France in case of trouble over Silesia. Mr. Archambault, of course, was addressing an exclusively French-Canadian audience and his purpose was clear: to stir up hatred against Mr. Meighen on the ground that he plotted in London to bring Canada into a war against France.

New Glasgow, N. S., Oct. 6.—The Clans are rallying for the fray in Pictou county. The MacDonalds, McLeods and McGregors are answering the call of their leaders to fight another bitter contest in this historic county. Colonel E. M. MacDonald ex-M. P. and Colonel Thomas Causley will lead the opposing forces. They formerly hunted together but are now prepared for a battle without quarter.

The Highlanders of Pictou county are dependent on protection. Every voter is a protectionist, including the Liberal candidate E. M. MacDonald. The great steel and coal trade of New Glasgow, Stellarton, Pictou, Westville and Trenton have all been developed under protective tariff and they are no mean industries.

Liberals Doubtful.

It is a question here whether the Liberals will accept the official Liberal Party Policy and objective of their leaders, or whether they will take the assurances of Messrs King, Fielding and MacDonald that this policy is a "chart," and the Liberal leader have a wide latitude in their course and may choose any port as their objective.

FRANCE NAMES DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE

With the Announcement of Republic's Interest in Arms Parley Awakens.

Paris, Oct. 6.—With the announcement that the delegates representing the French Republic at the Washington Armament Conference will include Premier Briand, former French Minister, Ambassador Jusserand, M. Berthelot, and Albert Sarraut, Minister for Colonies, the Republic's interest in the forthcoming gathering, which has hitherto been dormant, is beginning to awaken.

Chicago Police Force Fooled By Prisoner's Wife

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Oh, how the Chicago police would like to find pretty little Anita Lieberman and their long-lost husband, the petty Mrs. Lieberman is no more burning than that of a hundred deputy sheriffs and operatives of State's attorneys office. Mrs. Lieberman has put the cruellest bit of work over on the combined forces that has been accomplished in many fat yellow moons. The husband was in the county jail through lack of a $50,000 bond, charged with having participated in a $100,000 jewel robbery. He was in a cell with George Williams, held on a minor robbery charge, bailable at $3,000.

Dinner For Blushing Bride May Cost United States $125,000

Suit Filed in U. S. Supreme Court by Husband and Wife Against Administration.

Washington, Oct. 6.—One honeymoon dinner for a blushing bride may cost the United States Government $125,000. Mrs. Dora B. King and her husband, Dr. D. B. King of Greensboro North Carolina, have filed suits in Supreme Court District of Columbia, for damages totalling this amount against the United States Railroad administration. Mrs. King asks $75,000 for her injuries, received while on her honeymoon trip December 30, 1919. That was during the period of Federal control of roads. Mrs. King claims the injuries received then have left her almost helpless and in constant pain. Dr. King asks additional $50,000 for destruction of his wife's health, loss of her services and for expense of medical experts in an effort to restore her health.

Clergymen Had Glorious Saturday Nights At The Club

London, Oct. 6.—Rev. Hugh Jenkins, Congregational Evangelist, Preacher, has served a new if not energetic method for finding Salvation back-sitting parishioners. "Follow Jesus into the public houses," Jenkins was speaking to the Congregational Union of Bristol. "Christ said: 'Go into the highways and hedges roads.' If He lived today he would say 'go in

Minister Alleged To Have Thrown Wife Into Lake

Lakeport, Ont., Oct. 6.—Lectors alleged to have been written by Rev. John Spencer on trial for murder of his wife, to Mrs. E. B. Barber, in which he addressed her in effusive terms, were introduced by the State today.

Spencer is accused of throwing his wife from a canoe and reporting her accidental drowning.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

The unavoidable delay in the transfer and re-organization of The Standard has made it impossible to issue a newspaper of the quality the new owners have in mind.

The Standard asks the indulgence of its patrons until such time as the re-organization is completed and news service re-established, when it is expected to have a news sheet second to none in the maritime provinces.
