

Believe us, the ties that unite us now in one sublime purpose to spread the knowledge of Christ's redeeming love far as our energies can reach, are stronger than ever before. We shall ever hereafter claim our privilege, as the youngest daughter church of Methodism, to weep with you when you are in sorrow—to rejoice with you when you “wake up psaltery and harp.” We ask of our Heavenly Father no higher boon on earth than to live faithful, diligent, humble servants of the Lord Jesus, “counting not our lives dear unto us so we may finish our course with joy.”

Meanwhile we rejoice in the remembrance that our new ecclesiastical position, with the vastly increased responsibilities beneath which we are thereby placed, will not deprive us of your Parental supervision, nor of that much needed and generously continued aid which will enable us more readily to meet the exigencies of our widely extended sphere of exertion.

We pray you, honoured Fathers, we beseech you, beloved Brethren; forget us not in your hours of power and blessing, when the Angel of the Covenant is with you, when the glory is in the tabernacle—when the still small voice is heard after the earthquake, the whirlwind and the flame. Then, oh! then, bear us up before the Mercy seat of God in the effectual fervent prayer that availeth much, that we may be faithful unto death.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference,

WILLIAM TEMPLE,

Secretary.
