ENTLEMEN,—It may appear some.

If what premature to address you at this early date, as a candidate for the Commons at the approaching general election, especially as there is one session of the present Parliament yet to be held; but the mere mention of my name as a probable candidate having been the signal for the publication of numerous slanderous reports by newspapers printed in another riding, and circulating to a great extent in this (such reports being calculated to give you a false impression of my position) it is deemed advisable I should take this step in order to place myself in a proper light before you. You are all familiar with the causes which, in 1864, led to the resignation of B. Bell, Esq., and the advent to this Riding of Hou. Wm. McDougall. Many of the electors on that occasion, while favorable to Confe deration, were nevertheless opposed to the election of any other than a local

Confederation, were nevertheless opposed to the election of any other than a local candidate. Sympathising with this feeling which was not confined to any one party, complied with a requisition, signed by nearly four hundred electors, asking me to he the local caudidate in opposition to Mr. McDougall. The result was not unanticipated by those who worked with me. All-the influence of Sir John A. McDonald and his Government, and of many influential Reformers and Conservatives, was exerted against me, and this, added to the late date at which I was brought out, allowing notime for canvass, rendered the resultat hest doubtful. And here a word of explanation as to my resignation on that occasion. receiving the returns the evening of the receiving the returns the evening of the first day's polling, it was found that I was behind at every polling place, and that the election was virtually lost. To save our friends farther labor, the committee consented to my resignation, which proved afterwards a very unwise step, giving serious cause of offence to many, as it was found in the state of the committee to make the state of the committee of the comm impossible to communicate with them all in time to accomplish the object for which has had other results than those which the romoters of that scheme probably contemlated. Old party times have been almost bliterated; issues, the struggle over which at one time gave point to the names Conservative and Reformer, are dead or have een finally settled, and to-day we find men who, under the old regime, were called Conin harmony, and in support of, or in opposi-tion to, the Government of the day, itself-composed of men of both parties. The motto should therefore now be omen as well motto should therefore now be "men as well as measures," and the question of the hour is "the honest and faithful administration of the affairs of the country, and a wise and economical management of its finances." I am confirmed in this view from the fact that many members of the Ontario Government, heretofore called Conservatives, are to-day found voting with and sustaining & Liberal Government under the leadership of Hon. Mr. Blake, against the Opposition led by Mr. M. C. Cameron. No one imagines for a moment that these gentlemen are sacrificing any principle in so doing; rather may we take it for granted their opinions in full accord with those of the Liberal party as represented in the Ontario Govern-

y resignation was intended.
Since that time Phave taken very little to support Mr. Galbraith as your represent-ative in the Ontario Parliament, and to take im out as a candidate for the Common when it was understood Mr. McDougall's retirement was about to take place.

The coalition formed in 1864, for the purpose of bringing about Conf-deration.

Holding these views and bearing in mind that at the approaching session of Parlia ment, new issues may arise and changes be our opinions, I will now briefly state whn course I feel it will be may duty to take should you elect me to be your representa

Whatever foundation there may have been at one time for the claim set up tha the present Government should be retained wer until Confederation became an ac complished fact, none such can now exist. The no-party cry at the general election of 1867, and the dread of endangering establishment of Confederation on a firr basis, contributed to give the McDone'd The results have been unfortunate. and cowardly trackling to a conferaptible rebellion has distinguished the settlement of the terms on which Manitoha became a member of the Canadian Confederation ditti' have been fraternized, with ; th calls for justice on the marderess of Scott, martyr on account of his loyalty to his country, have been met with contemptions indifference; millions have been usclessly thrown away in the construction of the Inat great cost, is completely worthless; while confidence in the ability or desire, of the Government to rectify these criminal blun: parties buying by the piece, a liberal dars, is utterly last. Holding these views. and with no desire to judge the Government | reduction will be made harshly, it will be my duty to oppose them, and when necessary sustain such men in the formation of a Liberal Government as we may have reason to believe will better meet the wishes of the people, As it is a recognized fact that manufac tures gr atly increase the prosperity of any people, their encouragement will always receive my healty support. Tending to this, is the importation tree of duty of all necessaries of life, so as to cheapen the cost of living to the laboring popula-tion—of all raw material necessary in the achinery such as is not made in the com try, and a judi jous arrangement of the ariff for revenue purposes, which while operating to encourage native industries, will not be open to the objection of being specially productive.

The adoption of a wise and liberal policy, having for its object the encouragement of the immigration of farm laborers, is urgent ly demanded; and the opening up of the back country by railroads, and ell measures ands of the country, shall have my warmert support, since North Labark was set apart as separate Riding, it has never been reprented by a resident member. A longer continuance of this humiliating state of things must be regarded as a reflection apon ourselves. At the request, forrefore, of many of the electors in different parts of the riding, I have conserved to test the sense of the people on this question, by soliciting your suffrages as a local candidate oming clera in, and am resolved in due time to proseque the canvass vigor-ously and to continue the contest until the last vote is police
