BIG MUSICAL COMEDY COM- ING TO ROMA THEATRE

Will Open a Two Weeks Engagement Here on Monday, and This is in Addition to the Regular Program of Photoplays Accompanied by a Six Piece Orchestra.

Mr. Allen of the Roma Theatre great pleasure in announcing coming of the Wilkes Musical Comedy Players which is a Company of thirteen artists. They will present on this two weeks engagement the latest condensed Musical comedies, changing every Monday Thursday. The Company is led by Miss Vanola Malburn, California Song Bird. Rhea Robinson, the Gipsy Violinist; Florence, the dashing Soubrette; Fred Wynn, Mose Packer, Buck Taylor, Al Spears and the dainty chorus.
Mr. Allen has made arrangements for the lovers of the Fistic sport, to see the returns of the Willard Dempsey fight. These reports will be called off by special wire in the ring side to the stage of the Roma Theatre on Friday July 4th P.M.

The Wilkes Musical Comedy Players have very highly recommended they have just finished a four weeks engagement at the Family Theatre New York, and were asked to hasten their engagement for four weeks, but owing to the Contract with Mgr. Allen it was impossible to accept but they have been looked for a return engagement the latter part of July. The Company is playing at the Grand Opera House, Kingston, this week and are changing the bill every day. The Company is equipped to put on thirty different shows without repeating, and will stay here for two weeks, giving a change every Monday and Thursday.

The music lovers of Kitchener will be pleased to hear that Mgr. Allen of the Roma has engaged the Wilkes Musical Comedy players for two weeks commencing Monday June 30 changing Monday and Thursday to present four of the best shows. The company carries fourteen people, all of whom are stars in their line and bound to please and everything will be sang from Grand Opera to Rag.
SAVES PROXIES IN "THE MON-KEY CORRAL"
Artercraft Star Has Powerful Role in New Picture The proxies that would have ruined the Collins Trust Co., if they had got into wrong hands responded in the big vaults. Several efforts had been made to steal them and watchmen had been killed or wounded. While in Montana, the President of the company meets Lem Beeson at a rodeo and offers him a job to guard the valuable papers in Chicago. Lem goes because he is attracted by a pretty girl—a poor relation of Mr. Collins.
In Chicago Lem outwits the crooks, fights his way out of a frame-up and captures the arch villain—a trusted employee of the Trust magnate. He wins the girl and saves the day—and once again demonstrates that a sure eye, quick draw, and muscles of steel are a match for subtle knavery.
This is a resume of the plot of Willis S. Hart's new Artercraft picture, "The Money Corral," which is to be seen at the Allen Theatre on Mon. Tues. next.

Dominant Value

The Gray Dord is the dominant value-car for 1919.

There are other cars bigger and heavier.
There are cars lower in price. You do not need the costly weight and size and you will not sacrifice Gray Dord refinements to save a few dollars. What you want and need is the balanced value of the Gray Dord. Sufficient power and speed from a wonderful motor; ample room and supreme comfort in riding and driving; standard equipment; beauty of line and finish; a real car, sturdy and long-lasting; and all this at a low price.

The touring car is $1245; the Gray Dord Special—the car with added refinements and extra equipment, is $1355 extra; there are also a coupe, and a sedan. All prices f.o.b. Chatham and are subject to change without notice.

"THE PEST," MABEL NOR- MAND'S COMEDY MASTER- PIECE, HERE

Irrepressible Mabel Normand has broken out against Proof of the outbreak is found in "The Pest," and evidence of the sprightly com-edienne's high spirits will be enjoyed when the new Goldwyn Picture comes to the Roma Theatre beginning Thursday.

And there is something more—a witfulness and a pathetic appeal never before found in her madcap heroines. Funnier than "Sis Hopkins," the new play strikes the high lights of rollicking fun and at the same time brings a catch in the throat now and then when least expected. As the fun-loving farmhouse drudge, Mabel Normand is at her best—perpetrator of a hundred pectiolar jokes, always in a dreadful but perfectly logical scrape, and the center of a charming romance.
Easily she surpasses herself as "Puck-ers," the lovable pest.

Replete with novelty as is the entire production, there is something which will come as a complete surprise even from Mabel Normand.
In one episode she is seen as the tender of a ferry. It crosses a

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your Doctor's bill a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? Is your what these mean to delicate women. I have been discouraged too.
But I learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and will, if you will assist me.

All you need to do is to write for a free box of the remedy (Orange Lids) which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one will cure you—it has done so for others.
If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 3 cents (the cost of the postage stamp). Your letter held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatment. Mrs. Lydia W. Ladd.

NEW FOX STAR, WITH NEW LEADING WOMAN

William Fox gathered a fine array of talent for his latest comedy, "Married in Haste," which will be shown at the Roma Theatre Mon. Tues. and Wed. Two new Fox players, Albert Ray is the star and Elinor Fair is the leading woman. Also, Mr. Fox signed Arthur Rosson to direct the picture, on which it is understood much money was spent. In the cast are Robert Klein, Don Bailey, B.M.

Turner, Thomas Jefferson, and William C. Carroll.

Arthur Rosson is known as an exceedingly clever director, and, with Mr. Ray and Miss Fair heading the cast, patrons of the Roma Theatre should be in for a treat.

ALBERT RAY, NEW FOX STAR DUE HERE

According to advance reports, the Roma Theatre is to have another important photoplay Mon. Tues. Wed.
On that day will be shown a new William Fox star, Albert Ray, and a new leading lady, Elinor Fair.
They will be seen in comedy drama called "Married in Haste," a five-reeler that is said to be bulging with humor but with a few serious incidents thrown in. It is a story of the taming of a young spendthrift.
Through a scheme of his bride he is made apparently penniless in the mids of a host of unpaid bills. His wife wants to force him to be a business man and soon afterward he changes from full dress suit to the clothes of a workman, begins to climb and finally turns out to be a shrewd business man.

Arthur Rosson, who has made some very fine motion pictures was brought under the Fox banner especially to direct this photoplay.

FINE COMEDIANS IN NEW FLAG FARGE

Favorites are Very Well Cast in "Welcome, Little Stranger" Several of the best known comedians of the famous James Montgomery Flag staff of screen players, are re-presented in the latest Paramount Flag comedy, "Welcome, Little Stranger," which will be displayed at the Allen theatre days beginning on Wed.

These are Evelyn Gosne, Metcalf and Lucy Fox, all of reputation and ability.
Comedy is founded on the acute problem, recounting the adventures of a young good looking husband in search of a cook and conventional female blacksmith who brings home in place of the very pretty young woman who is forced by circumstances to seek a position as a servant.

It is to be expected that this situation is provocative of numerous comical scenes, all of which are well handled by Mr. Flag, under whose supervision the comedy was made. The titles are witty and assist the action materially.

Six of the eight members of the Vanocour City Council went on record as being in favor of boxing.
