

man of great breadth of mind and Catholic spirit, who was esteemed and beloved by all, and whose too early death was deeply regretted. The Rev. F. McCuaig succeeded him, and was followed by the Rev. M. Macgillivray, the present pastor

BETHEL CHURCH.

Bethel Church, near the head of Johnston Street, is an offshoot from the First Congregational, built 1878. Its present pastor is the Rev. Mr. McFadyen.

All Saints, St. Marks, Barriefield, and St. Johns, Portsmouth, are small suburban Episcopal churches, ministered by the Rev. F. Prime, Rev. K. L. Jones, and Rev. F. W. Dobbs respectively. The latter is one of the oldest clergymen of Kingston, uncle of Sir Richard Cartwright.

SALVATION ARMY BARRACKS.

The Salvation Army Barracks, Queen Street, were built in 1884 and have been twice burned down and twice restored with characteristic zeal and perseverance.

Kingston has several pleasant summer resorts in its immediate vicinity. The sail up the Bay of Quinte—an arm of the lake—to Belleville, is a charming one. Sharbot Lake in the back country is growing a favorite fishing and summer resort. The Thousand Islands are frequently visited by the citizens, some of whom have summer residences among their bosky recesses, and no doubt in time there will be a long line of handsome villas all the way along the shore to the thriving village of Gananoque, eighteen miles distant.
