

O

Corporations aggregate—Their petitions must be under their Seals, 37.

Costs of Private Bills—See Private Bills.

Counsel heard at the Bar—in cases of Divorce Bills, 79.

Crossing the Senate—Senators bow to the Chair when, 9.

D

Debates :

Rules of, from 20 to 28.

A Senator addresses the Senate and does not refer to any one by name, 20. A Senator can only speak on a question before the Senate, to an amendment, or to a point of order, 21. And can only speak once, except in explanation, reply, 22. Or in Committee of the Whole, 88. And not after the question has been put, 33. He may require the question to be read, 23. Motions that are received when a question is under debate, 24.

Sharp and personal speeches are forbidden, and Senators offended appeal to the Senate, 26. Offending Senators apologise or incur censure, 27. Quarrels prevented by the Senate, 28.

Demeanour of Senators, 9.

Divisions in the Senate—how taken, 30, 31.

Divorce Bills :

Notices by applicant inserted during six months in newspapers, 72.

Notices to be served on adverse party, or proof given of the attempts made to effect the service, 73. Proceedings in Courts of Law, if any, are laid before the Senate, 74. Also proof that the damages, if any, have been levied, or excuse given, 75. The Second Reading takes place fourteen days after the first; notice thereof is posted up and served with the Bill on the Adverse party, or, in default, an excuse is adduced, 76. The Petitioner may be dispensed from appearing at the Bar at the Second Reading, 77. After the Second Reading the Bill is referred to a Committee of nine Members, witnesses are heard on oath, and the evidence reported to the Senate, 78. Counsel on both sides may