THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE of the Western Home Monthly is $1 per annum to any address in Canada, or British Isles. The subscription price to foreign countries is $1.50 a year, and within the City of Winnipeg limits and in the United States $1.25 a year.
REMITTANCES of small sums may be made with safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more it would be well to send by registered letter or Money Order.

WE ALWAYS STOP THE PAPER at the expiration of the time paid for unless a renewal of subscription is received. Those whose subscriptions have expired must not expect to continue to receive the paper unless they send the money to pay for it another year.
CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—Subscribers wishing their addresses changed must state their former as well as new address. All communications relative to change of address must be received by us not later than the 20th of the preceding month.
WHEN YOU RENEW be sure to sign your name exactly the same as it appears on the label of your paper. If this is not done it leads to confusion. If you have recently changed your address and the paper has been forwarded to you, be sure to let us know the address on your label.

Pleasing Letters from our Subscribers.

Pasqua, Sask., Jan. 12, 1911.
Editor, Western Home Monthly,
Winnipeg.

Sir,—In renewing my subscription to the Western Home Monthly, I thought I would tell you that we like the paper very much. There always seems to be something in it each month that has particular interest for every member of the home. We have had the Western Home Monthly in our home for several years, and are continually remarking the improvement in the paper from year to year. I think "The Young Man and His Problem" and "The Philosopher" two very interesting pages, while "What the World is Saying" is also a good idea.

The correspondence columns have always been an amusing feature of the Monthly, and should be continued for the benefit of those who like that kind of amusement. One very outstanding feature about the Western Home Monthly is the clean moral tone of all the stories and articles that appear in its columns. As a journal for the home I think it would be hard to find another paper in Canada just quite as good.

Another very pleasing feature is the many interesting pictures that appear in the paper each month. Pictures always seem to break the monotony of a paper so much. I am going to enclose a couple of films that you may use some time if you care to. The one is our own farm buildings at Eastview, Sask., while the other I am sending is an Eastview party at Banff, Alberta. I may say I have several dozen good views that I would be pleased to lend you to choose from any time, as I amuse myself with amateur photography very often, and already have quite a wide range of subjects. I will also enclose one of a herd of buffalo at Banff.

Wishing you compliments of the season, and continued success, I am, sir, yours truly Thos. E. Alcock.

Sir,—Please send my magazine to Watson's Corners, Ont., instead of to Box 159, Macleod, Alta, as I wouldn't be without it for anything. It has improved greatly since I first knew it. Thanking you in anticipation, I am, yours truly, A. C. Craig.

Sir,—I take a great interest in your magazine and look forward to its coming each month. It contains much good reading, and above all the pictures reproduced in it are both excellent and educational. Yours truly, Peter Dunlop.

Lethbridge, Alta, December 12, 1910.
Sir,—Just a few words of appreciation of your Christmas number.

Accidentally discovering it one morning, I immediately became interested and wish to assure you that while other journals have been issued, gorgeously and strikingly got up, they have failed to awaken that Christmassy feeling and stir the heart with little crisp sayings like your issue has.

Incidentally, I never realized until now how interesting Canadian life and scenery is (especially the West and North) until put before one in such forcible little sketches as appear in the Western Home Monthly. Yours truly, R. K. Forrest.

Wauchope, Sask., Jan. 25, 1911.
Sir,—I am an English woman, and I appreciate the Western Home Monthly very much, and so do my English relatives whom I send it to. If I may say so, it is full of interest to the home lovers on the prairie and is most eagerly looked forward to. With wishes for even greater success for 1911, yours very sincerely, Beatrice Corbett.

The Editor, Western Home Monthly,
Winnipeg.

Sir,—Your magazine is a splendid one, brimful of valuable information, and we assure you that we appreciate it greatly. Yours sincerely, (Miss) Ralphia Still, Editor, Woman's Department, Dipper Office, Ottawa.

Kindly Expressions From Our Contemporaries.

The St. John (N.B.) Globe.—The Western Home Monthly is an ample magazine, designed as its name indicates, for home reading. In its December issue there are special articles by Ralph Connor, who writes on "The Conservation of Ancestors," evidently intending that Canada will not, if he can prevent it, waste this asset to her greatness. J. J. Hill tells of "The Northwest of Forty Years Ago." Dr. Neil McPhatter, President of the New York Canadian Club, writes of "Canada and its Future." Bonnycastle Dale describes "The Trails and Waterways of British Columbia." There are other papers from various parts of the West describing the growth and development of the country. There are numerous departments devoted to stories, the home, the farm, to music, to fashion, and, in fact, to all the interests that would centre about a well ordered home with a broad outlook upon life. The magazine is well edited, and would seem to be what it claims, a healthy Western magazine, edited and planned for the healthy Western home. Published by the Home Publishing Company, Winnipeg."

The Regina Leader.—"In looking over the Western Home Monthly one is struck by the number of prairie province writers who are doing good work in a literary way. Many new names appear among the authors of creditable stories and articles this month. Of clear, wholesome, entertaining fiction there is a good supply. Amongst the short story writers are Mrs. W. Lacey, of Tyvan, Sask.; Marion Dallas, Ottawa; Charles Dorion, Algoma, and Phoebe Stevens, Oxbow, Sask.

The needs of all the members of the household are considered in this essentially Western and Home Monthly."

The Melfort Moon.—"In the Western Home Monthly many interesting features will be found in several illustrated pages indicative of the marvellous growth of western cities and towns, and altogether this magazine will be entertaining."
