Film Fest Not Fun

Re: Third World Film Festival

I would like to extend my congratulations to the Edmonton Learner Centre for celebrating its 6th Annual Third World Film Festival. Ironical as it may sound, the program is far removed from an environment of a festival. The theme of the films mostly revolve around war terrorism and the destitutes in the Third World. Such films not only make us aware of the oppression that goes on in some parts of the world, but leave us with a melancholic feeling. Should this program then still be called "Third World Film Festival" or should it be addressed as "Third World Film Funeral?"

Pat, Pat

These are some of the accomplishments of this year's Students' Union executive that have gone largely unnoticed in the day to day activities during the past year.

- reduction of Students' Union fees to $46.
- new Students Finance Board proposal on remission.
- the acquisition of a $92,000 Board of Governors Grant, a 4% increase over last year.
- free Academic tutorials on the W.C.T.
- the creation of a new student discount plan and a Students' Union promotional campaign for cheaper items at the S.U. record store, free bowling, and a freeze on beer prices.

- successful initiation of a Volunteer Fair.
- grant to the International Student Center for upgrading and creation of new facilities.
- hosting of three provincial meetings in which all technical institutes, colleges, and universities were in attendance.
- increase in usage and awareness of the Student Ombudsman Service, along with an increase in full time staff.
- continuation of the one dollar movies.
- removal of the 10% surcharge on all alcohol sold to clubs.
- free use of all Student Union Building space used by clubs, including waiving Dinwoodie rents.
- RATT renovations.
- full food service in Dewey's and expanded l'Express menu.

These are a few Students' Union highlights, yet we are always looking for new ideas. Please drop by at any time — Room 259-E SUB, phone 432-4236.
