

Fig. 11.

Freight House of the New Orleans Terminal Association. By means of transoms the interior is rendered light at all times.

Fig. 12.

Kinnear Steel Rolling Doors are extremely valuable where economy of space is desirable. The above view of the building of the Seattle Hardware Co., of Seattle, Wash., shows that goods may be placed in close proximity to the doors without interfering with their operation.