 Sisseton Point Mission No. 2

- (a) As to the old complex those houses were found to be very dirty. This is a case also requiring the Agent's careful attention until a change for the better is effected.
- (b) As regards the stock of wheat belonging to the Chief, standing over from last year's crop and not yet threshed, the ^{Agent} should see to the same being threshed if it is worth it.
- (c) Hacks belonging to George Bird out of repair. The Agent should see to this.

Vak Lake Mission No. 59

As to the failure of the Agent occupying this Mission to get on well. Together, the Agent should endeavor to reconcile matters between them so that they may work harmoniously and thus make more progress.

I am,

Sir,

your obedient servant.

Deputy U.S. Supt. Genl. of Indian Affairs.
