

him the candle's got on by a third out of a dollar in any other way!
John has not been up in the car his Sunday so we were glad to see him this week. We had a letter from Nelson yesterday with photo of the Cathquake district. He is just back from San Pedro and says the damage is terrible. We were glad he was so there till a couple of days after the earthquake.
They have taken off on Monday morning

I paid just twenty - five cent more on my ten pounds of sugar than I did last week.
The taxi on Chicago is going to worry a good many of us!
Dorothy's party had a grand time last Saturday. There was a snow here with a party taking people up at our cars a job and they both went up for a dollar each.
It was part of your Christmas present. I have decided that I ought to let them be so extravagant, but I'll
