

19. The Senior Officer shall sit at the centre of the table, the President at the head, the next senior Committeeman at the foot, which shall be the point nearest the entrance for servants, no other places being reserved except for guests, as Officers do not sit according to rank.

20. On entering the Mess Room, the Senior Officer does so first, the others following without regard to precedence.

21. No Officer shall change his seat during dinner or leave the table without permission.

22. Both on entering and leaving the Mess Room for the night, all Officers bow to the Senior Officer.

TREASURERS.

23. There shall be two Treasurers, namely, a Regimental Treasurer and a Mess Treasurer.

The Regimental Treasurer shall be elected at the Annual Meeting, and shall collect and receive all funds, except Mess dues and chits.

The Mess Treasurer, shall be selected by the Mess Committee, and shall collect and receive payment of all Mess dues and chits, and shall pay all accounts for servants, supplies.