

- Peace movement, 52, 53
 Pendleton (Ind.), disturbance in, 48
 Pennsylvania, freedmen in, 19; gradual emancipation in, 20
 Pennsylvania Abolition Society, 11
 Petition, Right of, debated in Congress, 78-82
Philanthropist published by Birney, 37
 Phillips, Wendell, address (1861), 23; joins anti-slavery cause, 69-70
 Pierce, Franklin, in Kansas controversy, 153-54; upholds pro-slavery party in Kansas, 158, 163-64; attitude toward Kansas settlers, 174; accepts Southern views, 197, 198
 Politics, slavery issue in, 85-97
 Polk, J. K., 89
 Presbyterian Church, division in, 84
 Press, freedom of, 68-70
 Price, Judge W. C., 146
 Quakers, see Friends, Society of
 Railroads, construction of, 99
 Reeder, A. H., Governor of Kansas, 152; elections under, 152-53; and Pierce, 153-54; removed, 154; approves free-state convention, 155; Free-soil delegate to Congress, 155; accused of treason, 156
 Republican party, platform recognizes state rights, 56; principles of Garrison, 57-58; name applied to party of Jefferson, 97; and Fugitive Slave Law, 128; name given in 1856, 150; principles of Jefferson, 193-94; attitude on slavery, 194
 Rhode Island, bill to suppress abolition societies in, 72, 74
 Rhodes, J. F., on influence of cotton on slavery, 22; on Uncle Tom's Cabin, 136
Richmond Enquirer, 65
 Robinson, Dr. Charles, connection with Emigrant Aid Company, 151; Governor of Kansas under Topeka Constitution, 155; accused of treason, 159; opinion of free-state cause, 160; advises forcible resistance, 175; address at Lawrence, 188-89; Garrison denounces, 211
 Romans, slavery among, 3
 Sanborn, F. B., friend of John Brown, 218, 219, 225
 Santo Domingo, insurrection fomented by negroes from, 60; see also Hayti
 Schouler, James, History of the United States, cited, 90 (note)
 Seward, W. H., 100, 196, 202, 219
 Shannon, Wilson, Governor of Kansas, 154, 156, 162, 164
 Sherman, John, of Ohio, 143
 Silliman, Professor, Benjamin, Sr., subscribes rifle for Kansas, 157
 Simms, W. G., 65-66
 Slavery, Brazil frees slaves, 1; ancient classical controversy over, 2-3; issue in seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, 3-4; gradual trend against, 6; accepted as inheritance, 7; thought to be temporary, 8; little debate on issue, 9-10; not adopted by law, 10; as an economic institution, 21-23; effect of cotton industry on, 21-22; effect on industries, 63; moral justification of, 65-66, 166, 196-97; "gag resolution," 80-81; question of state control, 94; theory of popular sovereignty, 148; Sumner opposes, 166-76, 179-