

8. The patent may be granted to any person to whom the inventor entitled under the sixth section to obtain a patent has assigned or bequeathed the right of obtaining the same, or in default of such assignment or bequest, to the executors or administrators or assigns of the deceased inventor. Representatives of inventor may obtain the patent.

9. Any person, who has invented any improvement on any patented invention, may obtain a patent for such improvement, but shall not thereby obtain the right of vending or using the original invention, nor shall the patent for the original invention confer the right of vending or using the patented improvement. As to patents for improvements on patented inventions. Proviso.

10. In cases of joint applications, the patent shall be granted in the names of all the applicants: and in such cases, any assignment from one of the said applicants or patentees to the other or to any person, shall be registered in like manner as other assignments. As to joint application for patent.

CONDITIONS AND FORMALITIES.

11. Every inventor, before a patent can be obtained, shall make oath, or, when entitled by law to make an affirmation instead of an oath, shall make an affirmation, that he verily believes that he is, or, in the case of the inventor being deceased, the applicant shall make oath or affirm that the person whose assignee or representative he is, was the inventor of the invention for which the patent is solicited, and that the several allegations in the petition contained are respectively true and correct. Such oath or affirmation may be made before any Justice of the Peace in Canada; but if the inventor or the applicant is not at the time in Canada the oath or affirmation may be made before any Minister Plenipotentiary, chargé d'affaires, consul, vice-consul or consular agent, holding commission under the Government of the United Kingdom, or any Judge of the country in which the applicant happens at the time to be. Declaration to be made by applicant for a patent. Before whom.

12. The petitioner for a patent shall for all the purposes of this Act elect his domicile at some known and specified place in Canada and mention the same in his petition for a patent. Applicant to elect a domicile in Canada.

13. The applicant shall, in his petition for a patent, insert the title or name of the invention, and shall, with the petition, send in a specification, in duplicate. Particulars required in application.

14. The specification shall correctly and fully describe the mode or modes of operating contemplated by the inventor; and shall state clearly and distinctly the contrivances and things which he claims as new and for the use of which he claims an exclusive property and privilege; it shall bear the name of the place where it is made, the date, and be signed by the inventor if he be alive, (and if not by the applicant) two witnesses: in Specification and drawing, form of, and what to show.
