

61. No Member shall under any circumstances introduce into the Club as a visitor any one who has been an unsuccessful candidate for admission as a Member, or whose membership is suspended or cancelled or any one who has at any time in the opinion of the Committee abused the privileges of the Club.

62. Any person introduced as a visitor shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club for a further period beyond that hereinbefore limited on payment of $5 for the first month and $10 for each subsequent month of such extended period if the name of such person after being with the written recommendation of two Ordinary Members submitted to the Committee is approved of by it for such extension. The Committee are, however, empowered to alter this rule temporarily on special occasions on the written application of three ordinary members.

63. Persons introduced into the Club as visitors shall have no privileges other than the personal use of the Club and shall not be allowed to enter the room reserved for the exclusive use of members.

64. With the exception of visitors introduced under the previous clauses no person who is not a member shall be admitted to the premises of the Club at any time, except to view the house, and he must then be accompanied by a member.
