Roy Glassford and Willie Hoig two of the little choir boys in Christ Church sang a duett, "Almost persuaded," at both services yesterday. This was one of the finest numbers which has been put on singe the vested choir was established, Willie Hoig has a reputation as a boy singer, but Roy Glassford sang for the first time as a soloist. Roy has a high sweet and clear soprano voice and sings remarkably well. The duett made a decided hit, and it was upon request that it was sung in the evening.

A LOST GOLD MINE.

Fabulous stories about the world's buried millions have cropped up from time to time, but a writer in this weeks "T.A.T," describes in an article, "Where to Find Buried Treasticle, "Where to Find Durses ure," the story of that famous gold mine known as Adams' Diggins. He says:- \

"The mystery of the Adams Diggins seems to deepen as the years go by.

A fabulously rich mine was discovered

A fabulously rich mine was discovered and lost in 1859 on the boundary of New Mexico and Arizona.

"Twenty-two men in 1858 penetrated the unknown desert to the Southwest of California. At Yuma, on the Rocky Mountain ridge they met a Mexican, who piloted the party up the Gila River for a distance of over three hundred miles. When the point was reached where three mountain peaks stood out in the form of a triangle a halt was called. A camp was made, and the next day the prospectors discovered lumps of rure gold at the base of the nearest peak.

"Six weeks' work enabled the party."

"Six weeks' work enabled the party to accumulate an amount of gold estimated in value at £50,000. As supplies were running low, and tools for the work were badly needed, it was decided that twelve of their number should take the gold to San Transisco.

Tone up your Stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Get in Good Working Order Again.

Has the New Year's turkey left its traces in your stomach? Do you get up in the morning with a dark brown faste in your mouth? Is your head muddled and sort of half aching? Is your day's work a burden? Do trifles worry you?

If you have any of these symptoms it is time to pay attention to your stomach. It has been overworked and needs help. Attend to it at once or you will drift into Indigestion and from that to Dyspepsia. Help your stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They never fail to tone up the stomach and bring it back to a healthy condition.

Marie Ann Bujnold, of Marie Cap. Bonaventure Co., Que., says, "For two years my life was a burden, I could not take the simplest food without faving a pain across my stomach. One box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me and I have had no return of the trouble."

THE SINGER'S TRIUMPH.

"The greatest triumph of my life?"
The singer softly said,
"Twas in a city hospital,
Beside a fair girl's bed.

They called her 'Sister Madeline,' An orphan and alone, and 'Mother sing! oh, Mother sing! Was her unending moan. "The cruel flame had spared her face

'Twas heavenly to see,
I took her ice-cold hand in mine,
And sang, to old 'Dundee.'

Father, whate'er of earthly brave Thy sovereign will denies, Accepted at Thy throne of grace Let this petition Mse.'

"The moaning ceased, up into mine She lifted eyes, that shone With something more than mortal love,

"I sang of Heaven's perfect rest,"
Of Christ, 'the dying Lamb,'
And 'Rest thy soul and stretch thy wings.'

To dear old 'Amsterdam.' "Then 'Jesus, lover of my soul'— The fluttering fingers led The tender cadence of the song— "O singer sweet," she said.

"Then, kneeling there, I chanted low. The 'Gloria'—my eyes Were closed, and as a dreamer sees, So I saw Paradise.

"I knew that death was coming fast, And kissed her tenderly; The smile her lingering spirit gave Was Triumph's height to me." —Mary A. Denison.

Herham—I have had my life insured for $5,000 in your favor.

Mrs. Berham—Well: I'll be glad to have the money, but I think you've over-estimated your value.
