

OTTAWA, 12th January, 1875.

DEAR SIR,—Lieut.-Col. Gillmor having reported that you made the highest aggregate score of the Canadian Team, at Wimbledon, for 1874; I am desired by the President of the Dominion Rifle Association, (Lieut.-Col. Gzowski) to forward to you by this mail, the Gold Medal, graciously presented by His Excellency the Governor General, to the Canadian Marksman making the highest score at Wimbledon.

Allow me to congratulate you on your success in obtaining so honourable a distinction.

Please acknowledge receipt of the Medal,

And believe me to remain,

Yours truly,

J. MACPHERSON, Lt.-Colonel,
Treasurer, D. R. A.

LIEUT. MCNACHTAN,
Cobourg Artillery, Cobourg.

COBOURG, 14th January, 1875.

LIEUT.-COL. MACPHERSON,
Treasurer, D. R. A., Ottawa.

SIR,—I have the honor of acknowledging the receipt of—by mail—the Gold Medal presented by His Excellency, the Earl of Dufferin, the prize granted by him for the highest aggregate shooting of the Team at Wimbledon, this year.

This mark of distinction will ever be highly prized, not only as a token of my success, but in high appreciation of the distinguished donor.

Accept my warmest thanks for your own kind congratulations.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

E. A. MACNACHTAN, Lieut.
Cobourg Garrison Artillery.
