Why the Boy Leaves

1. Did you ever know a boy who owned the pigs and the lambs, but whose dad owned all the hogs and the sheep?

2. Did you ever know a boy who didn't like to have a room of his very own with a stove in it, so that he could stay there even on a cold winter night?

3. Did you ever know a boy who didn't like to have a horse and buggy of his own? How did you like to ask dad for the horse and buggy every time you wanted to go somewhere?

4. Did you ever know a boy who didn't work better when he had a share in the crop, or when he had one field with which to do as he pleased?

5. Did you ever know, from being a boy, how the town-worker boy was envied because he had a room that was his very own; a room in which he could leave his trunk and good clothes and know they would be unmolested?

6. Do you realize that the way you felt under these conditions is about the way all the other boys feel?

7. Did you know that time and thought spent on boys will pay just about as well as time and thought spent on pigs, cows and sugar-beets?—Ez.

OF NATIONAL REPUTATION

If our method of instruction was not thorough and practical we would not be to-day have as students grandchildren of many of our graduates of 60 years ago.

Albert College has an enviable record as an educator of the first degree.

Our method of instruction is co-educational, because we believe that by this means we can turn out broader-minded graduates. Descriptive, illustrated calendar and terms on request.
