

EAT CHARCOAL.

Bad Breath, Gas on Stomach, and Blood Impurities Stopped by Wonderful Action of Charcoal Lozenges.

Trial Package Sent Free To Prove It.

To blow a whiff of your bad breath in the face of a stranger or a friend, is a mighty disagreeable thing—to both of you. It humiliates you, and disgusts the one who is standing before you or talking with you face to face.

Onion-eaters, smokers, garlic-users, owners of bilious breath and furry tongues, victims of indigestion and those who are not teetotalers will be surprised how quickly they can get rid of their offensive breath by taking just a few of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Charcoal is the greatest gas absorber known, absorbing 100 times its own volume in gas.

Gas on the stomach comes from indigestion as a rule. But no matter which it comes from, if there is any there, charcoal in the form of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will absorb every bit of it. And besides that these charcoal wonder-workers will absorb any unnatural odors which you may have in your mouth, or in your stomach, and instead of having a "powerful" breath which you are ashamed of, you will have a pure, sweet breath, free from all odor.

That foul, bilious breath you have on arising in the morning can be stopped at once by Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour brash and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you have drunk or eaten. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber. It leaves the stomach and intestines pure and unpolluted by fermenting food, which causes more than half the ills of mankind.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal, and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder-workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c. box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

round one of the chain traces and pulled back with all his might. This additional weight caused the mother to stop and look behind her; but, discovering the cause, she gravely shook her head and prepared to resume her task of drawing the log to the mill.

This was just what the little imp expected, and, before the strain was put on again, he kicked out the iron hook which fastened the long chain to the log. As the mother again began to pull, he held back with all his strength on the chain until her muscles were in full play, and then suddenly let go. The effect was disastrous in the extreme. Down went the old elephant on her knees, and the driver described a most graceful and prolonged curve before he landed on the ground. "But like a cat, he struck on his feet, and, blurting out some heavy Burmese exclamations of wrath, he whispered a few words in the ear of the amazed victim of this unfilial practical joke. She seemed to understand him at once, and there ensued one of the most exciting chases it has ever been my good fortune to witness.

"The calf scented danger and fled, pursued by the mother. The youngster was quicker in turning, but at last he was cornered. The maternal trunk smote him on his loins. He gave a shriek; at a second stroke he dropped on his knees and took his punishment bravely and patiently. A few minutes later he walked past us to the shed; but his trunk was drooping, and the great tears were coursing silently down his India-rubber cheeks. I was sorry for the poor little fellow, and I noticed that at dinner time his mother was gently rubbing him down with her trunk and manifesting many signs of affection."

WHAT MAKES A BOY POPULAR?

What makes a boy popular? Surely it is manliness. During the war how many schools and colleges followed popular boys? These young leaders were the manly boys whose hearts could be trusted. The boy who respects his mother has leadership in him. The boy who is careful of his sister is a knight. The boy who will never violate his word, and who will pledge his honor to his own hurt and change not, will have the confidence of his fellows. The boy who will never hurt the feelings of any one will one day find himself possessing all sympathy.

If you want to be a popular boy, be too manly and generous and unselfish to seek to be popular; be the soul of honor; love others better than yourself, and people will give you their hearts, and try to make you happy. This is what makes a boy popular.

CHILDREN OF OLD EGYPT.

Children are much the same all over the world in their love of games and playthings. And what is perhaps still stranger is the fact that they loved these thousands of years ago, just as they do to-day.

They possessed dolls, made of wood; and, like those of the present time, they differed a good deal in their make.

Egyptian children, ages ago, amused themselves by working figures of men and animals moved by strings. One of these was a funny little figure of a man bending over a sloping table with a lump of something, probably dough, between his hands. His arms and legs were jointed, and by the pulling of a string he was made to roll the dough along the table.

Among the animals they copied in their toys were the crocodile and the cat. Very often they made the lower jaw of the animal hang loose upon hinges, and they fastened a string to its upper side. The string was then passed through a hole in the upper jaw, and by pulling this string the child could make his toy bite.

Egyptian children played with balls, as, indeed, the grown-up people did, too. The Egyptians loved painting, and covered the walls of their palaces with pictures of their daily life. These are still to be seen, clear and bright, as if they were painted only a little while ago. Some of these pictures show us men and women playing with balls; so we know that playing at ball was not altogether a child's game, though children did play it. The balls were made of leather, stuffed with bran, and sewed up with string, and were about the size of our cricket balls.

We see always what we are looking for, and if our mind has become trained to look for trouble and difficulty and all dark and dreary things, we find just what we seek. On the other hand, it is quite as easy to form the habit of always looking for beauty, for good, for happiness, for gladness, and here, too, we shall find precisely what we seek.—J. R. Miller.

It is worth while to do even the smallest kindnesses as we go along the way. Nothing is lost. No dew-drop perishes, but sinking into the flower makes it sweeter.
