

IMPRESSIONS OF FOURTH BOYS' CONFERENCE

56 Cities, Towns and Villages Represented in Big Week-End Gathering—Sunday's Features—325 Delegates Attended.

Three hundred and twenty-five boys and leaders attended the fourth conference of boys under "Y" auspices in the city on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The conference session opened Friday evening and the boys were organized into groups so that they could gain the greatest practical experience from the demonstrations of the Canadian Standard Efficiency program. This program is the program of all the Canadian churches and the Y.M.C.A. in co-operation, in Canada. It will be interesting to know that the American Leaders of Boys are practically taking over this full program for the four-fold development of boys based on the verse: "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man."

Saturday morning the boys gathered very promptly about nine o'clock and the leaders demonstrated the practical carrying out of an organized older boys' group as in Sunday Session. Saturday afternoon a mid-week session of the same group was demonstrated. This was followed by one hour of games in the Belleville Armouries, kindly loaned to the delegates so that they would be inside instead of in the extreme cold. The boys were then treated to a very fast game of basketball at the Y.M.C.A., where Belleville defeated the Oshawa delegates.

At six o'clock in the evening the boys met for a great banquet in Bridge Street Church Sunday school room. Mayor Riggs dropped in for a few minutes to express a welcome to the boys, and he with many others who were there to make the evening a success must have been impressed by the cheers, songs, and general applause of all who were present. The boys were comfortable but still had a great deal of "steam" to be worked off. The director of the Conference led the boys in a dozen songs, then Mr. Ackerman was asked to express a few words of welcome to the boys as president of the Y.M.C.A. The boys were delighted with the song "There Was a Chick", led by Mr. Fletcher. They were also greatly delighted with the other two songs: Brown's Baby Has a Cold Upon His Chest.

The special address of Friday night was taken by Mr. Manson Doyle on the "Four-fold Home Life." Saturday night Mr. Fletcher, after a group of delegates had put on a demonstration of the initiation ceremony, gave an inspiring address to the boys on "What Is Your Life Motive?"

The program up to this period covered the four phases of the Program: Intellectual, Physical, Devotional and Social.

Sunday afternoon a great group of boys gathered at St. Andrew's Church to hear the inspiring Sunday afternoon address and were deeply impressed by the message given them by Mr. Fletcher, who substituted for Mr. Taylor Staffan. Mr. Staffan was unavoidably detained in Toronto through illness.

The Sunday evening session was held in St. Andrew's Church, when the Rev. Mr. Kerr ably gave those present an address that was most fitting on "The Boy and His Value and Relation to His Home and His Call to Leadership." The final Conference session was most impressive. Mr. R. Woodley, the Grand Preter, occupied the chair, and after he gave a few words of welcome to the fellow-delegates and friends, he called upon Mr. Kerr, the Grand Scriptor, to read the minutes up to date; also the Grand Comptroller, who presented the total attendance at the Conference, and read a list of the cities, towns and villages from whence the boys had come. The Grand Preter then called upon several of the boys to give a vote of thanks to the ladies who had provided such a sumptuous banquet for them, also a vote of thanks to the ministers, Y.M.C.A. officials, press, and the various people who had opened their homes and hearts to the boys in attendance. The boys heartily responded to this by a spontaneous clapping of the hands. A motion was also passed that each leader send a letter to Mr. Taylor Staffan, regretting his absence through illness and to say how much he was missed at the Conference.

The Grand Preter then called upon Mr. Frank Wilson to lead in the singing of the hymn, "Faith of Our uncle refused to help them. Latest information is that on arrival at Cranbrooke, the man and his daughter were ignored by their relative and had to push on west, still seeking a place to call home.

Remarkable Story Told By Returned Soldier at Antelope, Sask.

Regina, Sask., Feb. 3.—A pathetic story of hardships, suffering and poverty comes from Antelope, Sask., where a middle-aged man, with his 14-year-old daughter, were interrogated by the police and discovered to be en-route from Belleville, Ont., to Cranbrooke, B.C., walking every foot of the way, save for such "lifts" as kindly auto drivers had given the pair.

George Hunter, a veteran of the recent war, with two years service to his credit and two wound stripes, received his honorable discharge from the army in 1918 and returned to his home in Belleville, Ont. For a while all went well and then sickness came. His wife died and then his children, one after the other, till only one girl was left. Out of work and penniless, according to his story to the police, he sold his few belongings and after paying his debts found himself with 65 cents in the world.

It was then he resolved to walk to Cranbrooke, B.C., where he said he had an uncle whom he thought would befriend him. For twenty-eight weeks he and his daughter "hit the trail," generally walking on the railway tracks to avoid the roads, which meant publicity and the police. Sleeping in haystacks and barns by night, they walked their slow way west. Now and again the man would get a job for a few days, and with the little sum so earned provisions and other necessities would be bought to maintain them on the long, long trail.

Not once during all these weeks were they questioned until they reached Antelope, Sask., well to the west of Regina. Early in September they reached Antelope, where the provincial police officer investigated their case. They seemed to have stood their hard experience well. The girl was a strong, healthy country lass, who said the trip had been all right, barring the cold, sleeping out at night. Papers in Hunter's possession verified his story to some extent, and figures made by the police further confirmed them. The uncle at Cranbrooke, B.C., was telegraphed and pending an answer the constable took the wayfarers in, and for several days kept them at his own expense. No answer came from the uncle in Cranbrooke, and the constable loaned them money to take the train west.

The day after they left the belated wire arrived in which the

How to Treat Stomach Trouble

A Tonic Medicine is Needed to Build Up the Digestive Organs.

The old-fashioned methods of treating stomach diseases are being discarded. The trouble with the old-fashioned methods was that when the treatment was stopped the trouble returned in an aggravated form.

The modern method of treating indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble is to tone up the stomach and glands to their normal work. Every step toward recovery is a step gained, not to be lost again. The recovery of the appetite, the disappearance of pain after the road to health that those who have tried the tonic treatment remember distinctly. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic every constituent of which is helpful in building up the digestive organs, and therefore the very best remedy for simple or chronic cases of stomach trouble. The success of the treatment is best shown by hundreds of cases like the following: Mrs. Chas. Comer, Picton, Ont., says:—"For upwards of two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. Food would not get into my stomach, and I would belch gas with a burning sensation. Often I would be troubled with nausea, sick headache and dizziness. Notwithstanding that I was under medical treatment the trouble grew so bad, that I would only eat when absolutely forced to, and I was in constant misery. I was finally advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and had only been using them a few weeks when I found they were helping me. I very gladly continued their use and the result is, every vestige of the trouble having disappeared. I am so grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me that I strongly advise anyone who may be suffering from stomach trouble to give them a fair trial, and I believe that like myself they will find a sure cure."

Anyone can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockton, Ont.

Forward Movement Notes

Information lately to hand indicates that the United Forward Movement of the Protestant churches in Canada is meeting with marked success. From the first it has numbered among its most devoted workers many of the leaders in Canadian business and public life. Although the general financial canvass which forms one feature of the movement will not take place until next week, a number of churches have already raised more than the total amount asked for.

A farmer near Bowmanville walked into the office of the campaign chairman and left an unsolicited subscription of $500. In that town and section they expect at least ten of that amount for the Bowmanville Methodist Church.

Napanee has reported two subscriptions of $1,000 each. The farmers of Tamworth Methodist circuit in the same district simply accepted the suggestions of their pastor in regard to what each family could afford to give, and were first in the conference to go over the top.

Another country circuit in the same district announces a special subscription of $5,000. The subscriber says that he will not be satisfied until enough others subscribe in special subscriptions (minimum of five hundred dollars) to make up $5,000 more.

Ingersoll, Feb. 4.—The badly frozen body of Wesley Roache, a young man of this town, 21 years of age, was discovered about ten o'clock Saturday morning alongside the G. T. The finding of the body was reported by a train crew from the west and later in the day under direction of Chief of Police Holmes and Coroner Canfield the body was removed to Bonisteel's undertaking parlors, where it was identified by a brother of the unfortunate young man, who resides here. In the evening an inquest was opened under Coroner Canfield, and was adjourned for a week.
