Drop Game to the Giants.

PHILLIES BEAT BRAVES

Brooklyn, Oct. 5.—With several of Manager Carrigan's lieutenants here to look over the National League champions yesterday, Robinson used many of his second string men and recruits, and the Giants won by 7 to 3. Cheney pitched three erratic innings, and was relieved by Cadore, late of the International League, who was pounded hard. Salce was effective for New York. Mack Wheat had his finger split, and was forced to retire. McGraw did not appear at the grounds. Score:—R. H. E.
New York . . . 111100102—7 14 2 Brooklyn . . . 002010000—3 7 2 Batteries—Salce and McCarty; Cheney, Cadore and M. Wheat, O.
Miller.

At Philadelphia. — Philadelphia clinched second place in the National League race by defeating Boston yesterday by 7 to 5. The Phillies won by hitting Allen and Barnes hard in the sixth inning. When Boston threatened to score in the ninth inning, Alexander went to the rescue.
Score:—R. H. E.
Boston . . . 000140000—5 9 1 Philadelphia . . . 20001301X—7 11 0 Batteries—Allan, Barnes and Blackburn; Demaree, Kanteleher, Oeschger, Alexander, Burns, Adams.

Pipp Leads in Home Runs

New York, Oct. 5.—The Yankees look a strange hold on fourth place yesterday by twice defeating the Senators by 4 to 3 and 5 to 1. The games were listlessly played, and only a few fans turned out to witness the closing of the American League season. Pipp's homer gave New York a victory over Washington in the first game. Shocker held the Senators to four hits in the second contest, and was never in trouble.
Pipp's home run was his twelfth of the season, and gives him the honor of the league in this specialty. Score: First game—R. H. E.
Washington . . . 000101001—3 6 4
New York . . . 00301010X—5 7 1 Batteries—Shaw and Henry, Ainsmith; Russell and Walters.
Second game—R. H. E.
Washington . . . 001000000—1 4 3
New York . . . 00301010X—5 7 1 Batteries—Ayers, Jamieson and Ainsmith; Shocker and Alexander.

WHITE SOX BEAT CUBS
Chicago, Oct. 5.—The American League team won the first game of the series for the championship of Chicago to-day by defeating their National League rivals, 8 to 2. Total paid attendance, 17,250. Score: R. H. E.

Whitted Played, Ankle Broken

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—It was learned to-day that George Whitted, left fielder of the Phillies, broke a bone in his left ankle yesterday afternoon when he tripped on a pop bottle while chasing a fly ball in the first game between Philadelphia and Boston. Despite the injury Whitted played all through the double-header. In the second game he hit a home run and a single.

Barry May Yet Play

Boston, Oct. 5.—Manager Carrigan, of the Boston Red Sox, put his men through a light workout yesterday afternoon on Braves' Field, where the world's series games in this city are to be played. The squad was divided into two teams and ten innings were played. All the regular pitchers were sent in to work for an inning or two and batters were given plenty of opportunity to hit the ball in order to accustom the fielders to judging fly balls in the sunlit spaces and the shadows of the park.

Captain Barry was second-baseman of one of the teams, but his injured hand is still weak, and it is not believed that he will figure in the world's series. Javrin, who had been at second in Barry's absence, is expected to play the position.
To-day a team of Red Sox players go to Worcester, where they will play a game with the Philadelphia American League team for the benefit of the Memorial Fund for John H. Gaffney, a former National League umpire.

Press headquarters for the world's series will be open at the Hotel Lenox, in Boston, Friday afternoon.

EVERYONE TALKS BUT M'GRAW

League and Team Officials Do Not Believe Giants Threw Games.

New York, Oct. 5.—There was much conversational excitement in the baseball world yesterday. The only man who kept quiet was the man at the center of the talk—John J.
McGraw, the stormy petrel of the big leagues. Everybody connected with the game had something to say yesterday about McGraw's remarks concerning the playing of the Giants against the Brooklyn club Tuesday, except McGraw. He did not make his appearance at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon when his club defeated the Dodgers, or rather the Dodgers recruits, and second string men, in the third game of the series. The score was 7 to 3, and it was a dull, listless affair, almost as listless as the game on Tuesday which caused McGraw to walk off the field, and issue the declaration which set the world of sport by the ears.

"I'm through with them for this season," said McGraw, in that declaration, and apparently he is. Charley Herzog, the club captain, was in charge of the Giants yesterday. The race being all over, Wilbert Robinson rested up most of his regulars for the opening of the world's series in Boston Saturday.

It was reported that McGraw had left town, but this could not be confirmed. He was seen last night after it had received circulation enough to cause a terrible stir, but he said he had nothing to add to the remarks he made at Ebbets Field after the game.

The members of the National Commission, which is the governing body of baseball, are all in New York to make arrangements for the world's series, and are fully aware of the McGraw incident. It is not likely they will take any action in the matter, however.

Ban Johnson Speaks Ban P. Johnson, president of the American League, and one of the commission, says that the affair is up to the National League, and not to the National Commission, anyway.

Johnson rarely overlooks an opportunity to swat the rival league, and he swung this one right from the floor yesterday.

"If they (the National League) are not big enough to handle it, they should go out of business."

That was not all that Ban said—not by any means. He put much harshness in his accents in speaking of John J. McGraw. Only recently, John J. McGraw and Ban Johnson smoothed out the corrugations of a difference that began back in the time when McGraw jumped Baltimore and the American League, and they were again friends.

Now—well: Personally speaking of McGraw's statement, says Ban, "I think it was an outrage, and had it occurred in the American League there would have been something doing."

Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Club of the National League, and spare man of the National Commission, was at the Waldort to-day, but he declined to do much talking about the McGraw matter.

"This is the first time I had ever heard of this incident," he said. "At first I thought it was a joke."

"Do you still consider it a joke?" he was asked.

"No, I believe it was a fool act," he said.

Herrmann declined to say whether the National Commission would act at the meeting in Boston on Friday, but John H. Tener, president of the National League and the third member of the commission, does not think the matter will be presented to the high court of the game.

"I have not talked either with Manager McGraw, Secretary Foster or with any of the members of the meeting in Boston on Friday, but John H. Tener, president of the National League and the third member of the commission, does not
to the high court of the game."

"McGraw's action means simply that the wild Irish in him rose to the top when he thought his athletes were not doing their best."

Tener was present at the game in Brooklyn yesterday. He is an old-time ball player and is supposed to be more or less of a judge of ball playing.

"Personally, I believe every man was fighting tooth and nail to win," he said.

Harry N. Hempstead took a stenographer in hand to-day and had quite a bit to say.
